BOMBED FOR HIRE, GIRL SAYS

FRANCE FEARS FASCIST COUP TO SEIZE RULE

Troops Held Ready to Stop Attempt.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
PARIS, Nov. 26.—While public opinion generally remains apathetic, extreme newspapers are using government crisis and President Doumergue's difficulty in finding any capable of forming a cabinet as an excuse to discuss a possible coup d'etat.

A Fascist revolution and dictatorship are frankly mentioned in just a few words by publications representing the extreme right and extreme left parties, but the big popular newspapers generally refrain from any unpleasant references. The government is holding troops in readiness to march into the capital to avert a coup, should an attempt at one be made.

Brindl Tries Again.

And in the meantime Aristide Brindl, already seven times premier, is making his second attempt within a week to form a cabinet. President Doumergue called him to the Elysee palace and asked him to make a fresh attempt after Edouard Herriot had announced his failure. Thus the political situation is exactly where it was at the first part of the week. There already have been four attempts to form a ministry.

The continued fall of the franc generally is of little concern to the man on the street, who is not interested in money and dollars and is only cognizant of the depreciation of the national monetary unit by front page news giving the quotations in the afternoon newspapers. Even so, the fall of French money does not mean much, as the average Frenchman does not need to buy American goods, and merely notices that prices are slowly increasing, but that it is nothing new.

War of Danger to France.

The national newspaper, Victoire, in a column first page article, entitled "France Is in Danger," warns that the time is not ripe for a coup d'etat.

Certain patriots, ardent and patriotic, but inexperienced politically, dream of a Fascist coup like that in Italy to deliver the country from its present quagmire. They forget that Premier Mussolini succeeded with the complicity of the government, police, gendarmerie, and army, while in France the government is in the hands of a cartel and the police, gendarmerie, republican guard, certain military officials, and a great portion of the troops are cartellists.

Appeals to Nationalists.

A Fascist coup d'etat at this time would only strengthen the cartel. The only remedy now is intensive propaganda to seek to teach the 600,000 people deceived in the May elections to vote, when the dissolution of parliament comes, for a nationalist majority.

The article warns against the men of the franc, the destruction of the credit, bankruptcy, economic crisis, lockouts, and revolution.

Demands Firmness.

The statement appears in the conservative after the statement of M. Herriot this morning after long hesitations. M. Herriot said: "I have no doubt that the government has decided to take the necessary measures to maintain the country in order. It is a duty which the government has decided to apply—there are moments when the borders on waste and disorder."

Turned a Robespierre.

On these words, the Independent says if they mean the destruction of the state of siege or the suspension of the constitution, the Independent newspaper, Echoir, a Socialist leader, Paul Robespierre, is expected to become the Robespierre of a new revolution and warns that he will not become a Robespierre.

REMINISCENCES OF THANKSGIVING DAY

Mrs. Ostermoor Overways, who is concerned about her tongue, took the lid off of her pot suppressed desire yesterday and for once ate all she wanted. By evening she was thoroughly crowded with busy tissue building food, and today she is equally crowded with regrets.

"Oh, dear!" she said sincerely when she weighed herself this morning.

Miss Gloria Hotfoot danced the Charleston yesterday afternoon from three till five-thirty, wearing out two records, one rag, and nineteen needles. She says she does it to preserve her figure. The neighbors say if she does it again she will have to do something to preserve her life.

Judge Michael Blarney, speaking at a Thanksgiving inquest held yesterday at his home, concluded his remarks by toasting his guests.

"May your shadow never grow less, and may the skin of a gooseberry cover all of your enemies." Three of his more replete guests refused to applaud when the Judge sat down.

WIDOW LEAPS IN RIVER; THROG WATCHES RESCUE

While the upper level of the boulevard link bridge was crowded with holiday strollers and a steady stream of automobile traffic was passing, Mrs. Pearl Haskins, a widow, sought relief from a dreary Thanksgiving by jumping from the lower level into the river.

Mrs. Haskins' leap might have gone unnoticed, had not she screamed as she struck the water. Traffic was stopped as several hundred people watched policemen rescue the woman.

Charles Boyce, 19 West Huron street, witnessed the plunge and notified Lincoln Park policemen Michael Rice and Louis Laeschelt. A life buoy was tossed over the head of Mrs. Haskins as she floated screaming near the river bank. Policeman Laeschelt extended a ladder to the woman, to which she clung until the bridge tender, Jack Nelson, reached her with a boat.

Locarno Pact Is Approved by Reichstag

BY JOHN CLAYTON.
(Copyright: 1925: By The Chicago Tribune.)
BERLIN, Nov. 26.—The Locarno treaties battle has been fought and won in Germany. The section of the bill in the reichstag covering the Locarno treaties was passed in the second reading tonight, 271 to 158. After amendments to the second section of the act, covering Germany's entrance to the league of nations, had been refused, 245 to 170, this section also was carried by an ordinary vote of 117 to 40. No count was made. The third reading tomorrow, therefore, becomes a mere formality.

Throughout today's debate, which hinged more on the internal than on the foreign policy, the house was virtually empty. Most of the time was spent by the Socialist and Nationalist spokesmen calling each other unbecomingly names.

KING OF SIAM DIES; LEAVES NO SON FOR THRONE

(Copyright: 1925: By The New York Times.)
PARIS, Nov. 26.—An official telegram from Bangkok announcing the death of the king of Siam was received today at the French foreign office. Condolences have been sent by the French president.

King Rama VI. throughout his reign always maintained friendly relations with the French in Indo-China, and last year he made several important treaties with them.

Only a few weeks ago the king dethroned his official wife, by whom he had no children, and promoted to the rank of sovereign princess Chao Chom Suravandana, who two days ago gave birth to a daughter. She cannot inherit the throne, which passes to the king's brother, Prince Sukadaya.

King Rama, who was educated at Oxford, on his return to Siam instituted a boy scout movement for which he had the greatest admiration. He made all his nobles boy scouts and he himself designed for them most elaborate uniforms.

King Rama's other passion was the theater. He translated Romeo and Juliet and the Merchant of Venice into Siamese.

BRIGHTON PARK BOY IS MISSING; FEAR KIDNAPING

Police of the Brighton Park district yesterday were searching for Edwin Gane, 11 year old school boy of 354 Archer avenue, who disappeared Wednesday night.

Elmer Gane, a shoe dealer, and father of the child, told the police that Edwin had been playing in front of the Mid-West theater with a friend, Jack Thompson, about 6 o'clock. That was when he was last seen.

Two automobiles were stolen from in front of the theater during the evening and it is believed that the boy might possibly have been playing about the machines and was carried off.

"It is strange that he should disappear before Thanksgiving," his father said. "He had been planning to eat a big dinner. He never ran away before."

Treaties' Poes Beaten.

The last attempt of the Nationalists to defeat the treaties' approval failed today when efforts to enforce two months' notice of the new laws, which might require a two-thirds majority, were defeated. The decision of the ministry of justice, already in the hands of the foreign affairs committee, will be read at the reichstag tomorrow, after which the final vote will be taken.

Four hundred and thirty out of total of 491 deputies were present to right when the vote was taken. Most of these missing were supporters of the Locarno pact.

Choir Singer Faints, Dies at Thanksgiving Service

Miss Katherine Hillebrand, 40, of 1144 Diversey parkway, a music teacher, dropped dead yesterday while attending services at the Bethlehem Evangelical church, 2745 Magnolia avenue. She had been singing in the choir when she fainted. Taken to the vestibule, she was revived, but collapsed as she walked back into the church. Miss Hillebrand was founder of the Diversey Conservatory of Music, 1144 Diversey parkway.

Thanksgiving holiday and become a place of great activity.

"I am determined that nothing shall prevent the bringing to justice of those responsible for these bombings," Mr. Crows said in explaining his reasons for acting.

Despite his care, parts of Wamquist's confession leaked out. He told the prosecutors of participating in five bombings in the last few weeks. It is said. The syndicate usually paid him from $150 to $200 for each job.

One bombing which Wamquist confessed, it is reported, is that which partly destroyed the Red Wing barber shop, 124 West Chicago avenue, and broke six windows in the Chicago avenue police station, across the street.

Four other bombs were exploded in front of other barber shops, one wrecking a shop in the Cadillac hotel. That job, dangerous because the police were watching the place almost constantly on account of labor troubles, netted the bombers $500, Wamquist said.

Convicted He Hasn't Told All

While Wamquist insisted that he confessed his activities entirely to the prosecutors, excepting only yesterday's bombing of the hardware store, the prosecutors are convinced, they said, that he is withholding much of the truth, and they continued to hammer away at him.

On every bombing, Wamquist said, he was aided by his sweetie, Mrs. Rice. On every occasion, according to the reports, the girl carried the bomb under her cape, and after lighting the fuse walked nonchalantly toward the place to be bombed, dropping it as she passed.

This was done, according to Wamquist's reported confession, to divert suspicion. They figured surely that passersby never would suspect a woman of planting a bomb.

Savage Tells Another Version.

That was the bomber's explanation, but it was not the explanation of Prosecutor Savage.

"They were yellow dogs and made a woman do it so if things went against them she would get the blame," he declared. "But we are going to get the same done for them all, and that is to be the very limit of the law."

The bombs used by Wamquist were more than a foot in length, and as a rule contained four sticks of dynamite. Some of the victims of the bombings have been policemen whose activities in raising boot joints displeased certain powers. Others were merchants or manufacturers who had engaged in labor disputes. At least two of the victims were witnesses in murder trials against gangsters.

Tell of $500 to $1,000 Prices.

According to the reports, the syndicate would handle any kind of job for a consideration, the price ranging from $500 to $1,000, depending upon the danger of the work and the degree of terrorization which it would effect.

Labor officials were to be questioned by the special grand jury, it was reported, to be asked to explain rumors that they had retained the bombers. Associations were also under investigation, especially in the bombing yesterday morning of the hardware store of P. Descurraux at 2639 Fullerton, the bombing which set up the whole conspiracy before the state's attorney's eyes.

Prosecutor Savage declined to reveal the source of his information which

Farm Lass Becomes First Woman Bomber in Chicago

First a simple country lass, then a discontented wife, the mother of three children, now an accused bomb planter, the tool of a desperate Chicago bombing band—that tells the story of Lena Schrock Rice. And she has just passed her twenty-third birthday.

She is Chicago's first woman bomber—perhaps the first in the country—and at least five wrecked buildings bear witness to her handiwork, according to Assistant State's Attorney Joseph P. Savage, who questioned her for hours yesterday after she had been trapped in the setting of a bomb early in the morning on the threshold of P. Descurraux's hardware store at 2639 Fullerton avenue.

Lena at first presented a dilemma to the prosecutors. Hour after hour she withstood the fire of questions, smiling determinedly, said it was all a mistake. As for that package she dropped before a hardware store—well, of course it turned out to be a bomb, but for all she knew when she tossed it aside it might have been just an innocent bundle of papers, or candy, or whatnot. She didn't know it was a bomb, certainly not!

What if Freddie Wamquist—her sweetheart, the prosecutors say—did led to the denouement, but it was reported to have come from a prisoner in the county jail, a member of the gang angered because his comrades had failed to come to his assistance and to obtain his release on bail.

Seen by Fifty Detectives.

At any rate the tip sufficed to run the three prisoners into a trap. They planted the bomb at the hardware store in the plain sight of fifty detectives, all posted at vantage points where they could see but could not be seen.

When Lieut. Egan saw the girl and her companion enter the hardware store entrance way, he could hardly believe they were the quarry sought. Then he saw the woman stoop and drop something, and he gave the signal to advance. Then a large automobile drew up and the two at the door made a bee line for the car.

Lieut. Egan ordered the driver, later learned to be Wamquist, to stop, and when he spurted on fired a load from his shotgun. A police car followed and captured Wamquist. The woman and Avenida were captured. In the midst of the battle, during which more shots were fired, the bomb exploded, destroying the front of the store.

The scene of wild confusion was restored to calm in a few moments by Lieut. Egan, who took the prisoners.

confess and say that she had bombed five places and knew exactly what she was about.

"He must be full of hope if he said that," she says. "I just went out with him for the ride." Later she broke down under persistent questioning and corroborated Wamquist's story of the bombings.

Lena hates her somewhat common place name, it appears, for when she was arrested she was "Miss Lee McCullen." She was mysterious about her antecedents, too, but when an acquaintance who knew her back on the farm happened to see her, and gave freely of her history, she complacently admitted it as the truth.

Back in Richwood, O., which is a little town not far from Columbus, is the farm of her earth-killing and honest father, H. C. Schrock. When she married Fred Rice, while just a little girl, she went to Battle Creek, Mich., to live, and there she brought two daughters and a son into the world.

Then she met Fred Wamquist—and fell for him.

Wearing of Rice, she deserted him and went with the children back to Richwood. Wamquist followed her and induced her to come here, she said.

first to the Shakespeare avenue police station and later to the state's attorney's office. A report that there was a fourth member of the party later was believed improbable, for no one was seen to leave the bankers' automobile. The woman bomber, believed to be the first of her profession in the country, gave a false name, it was learned. She was identified by William Connell, a former police sergeant, as Mrs. Lena Schrock Rice of Battle Creek, Mich.

Some weeks ago she deserted her husband and the three children, and went to her father's Ohio farm, eloping from there with Wamquist, who at one time was a railroad detective.

Connell said she recently complained to him that Wamquist beat her cruelly, but in spite of his brutal treatment she stuck to him.

Diet Approves Policy of Poland's New Premier

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

WARSAW, Nov. 26.—Premier Skrzynski's declaration of policy received the approval of the Polish diet today after a short debate. Only the radical peasants' party of the Ukraine and the white Russian groups voted against it. The German and Jewish minority parties held out their votes.

Mr. Skrzynski will leave Warsaw tomorrow en route to London for the signing of the Locarno treaties.

CHEMICAL WAR SERVICE CHIEF DECRIES CUTS

Economy Menaces Safety, Gen. Fries Says.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—[Special.]—Warning that lack of preparedness in chemical warfare bordered on national suicide, Maj. Gen. Amos A. Fries, chief of the chemical warfare service, asserted in his annual report that unless congress voted a drastic increase in appropriations the United States will soon be the weakest among the six most powerful nations in chemical warfare strength.

Gen. Fries asserted that the annual appropriations have been insufficient to supply the urgent needs of the service and as a result war stocks for foreign projects or stocks which can be used for aerial maintenance and for training have been reduced to practically nothing. The appropriations, he declared, had been insufficient even to maintain the war reserve, and gas masks for use in the continental limits of the United States are nonexistent.

Foreign defense projects, he added, are both short in numbers of gas masks and deficient in proper sizes as the result of the economy program.

"The manufacture of gas masks, of training munitions, reserve plant projects, the upkeep and supply of foreign defense projects are all urgent needs which cannot be met because of limited funds," Gen. Fries declared.

"Both the commissioned and enlisted personnel in the chemical warfare service are inadequate in numbers for the proper performance of their duties and the number of men in the First Gas regiment is so small that it is almost unable to function as a laboratory for chemical weapons."

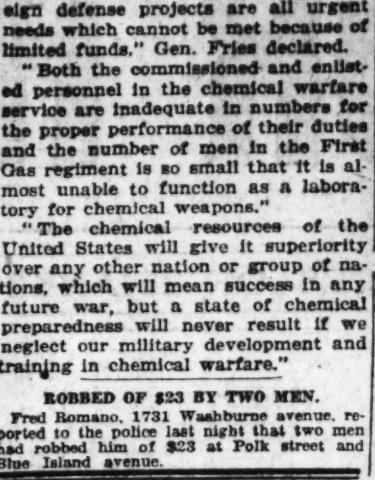

"The chemical resources of the United States will give it superiority over any other nation or group of nations, which will mean success in any future war, but a state of chemical preparedness will never result if we neglect our military development and training in chemical warfare."

ROBBERY OF $23 BY TWO MEN.

Fred Romano, 1731 Wabash avenue, reported to the police last night that two men had robbed him of $23 at Polk street and Blue Island avenue.

Edward Niesinkowski, 17, of 1735 Lull place, and two other youths were trying to break into a house at 710 North Racine avenue when Joseph Fisher, of 742 North May street, arrived. He seized Niesinkowski and wrested a revolver from him, while the others fled. Then Fisher took his prisoner to the West Chicago avenue station. The youths had smashed a window of the house, which is occupied by Walter Podrusek.

ALL OVER TOWN FEASTS GRE DAY OF THANK

Crippled Kids and Inmates Made Happy

Never was Thanksgiving more joyfully and prosperously celebrated in Chicago than yesterday. So many of the city's people, who had not been to church or synagogue for some time, were seen in the streets, and a home without a bountiful supper on the Thanksgiving table is a thing of the past. The great spirit of Thanksgiving, the individual, the city, and the nation have much to be thankful for, and it is manifest everywhere. It was dominant in the church services, which Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish joined. It was reflected in such institutions as the jails and for the impoverished.

Feast at Oak Forest Infirm.

One of the greatest Thanksgiving feasts ever known in a county institution was held at Oak Forest infirmary, where 4,500 patients and attendants were gathered together at the table.

Everything that any one has heard of for Thanksgiving, from the days of the Puritans, the table. There was a ton of two tons of geese; there was berry sauce, delicious celery, and apples, and all the rest without a Thanksgiving dinner just isn't. And though the diners all with a gusto almost equal to the ply, there was still some left as painfully made their way from the table.

In the Cook county jail and Bridewell there were similar feasts. Dinner was served to all the prisoners. Everything was done to turn and all the prisoners were for the dinner bell.

Dancing and Joy Reigned.

After the meal came dancing. There was music and singing and dancing, boys with girls, of course, and all the rest without a Thanksgiving dinner just isn't. Judge William R. Feltzer gave at the many unique dinners. In the Masonic temple, which happens to be sitting, he gave for the 500 crippled children attend the public schools. The smiling and happy, were brought the courtyard in the motor which every day carry them from school. And when they were with their little twisted bodies painfully sat down to the banquet table, there were tears more than one, including those of the and "Diamond Joe" Esposito was there to watch it all.

It was a happy time and before children left "Diamond Joe" out a check for them all.

"Just a little individual cash out for each of them, God bless it," he said.

And he smiled through a thr tears.

YANKS IN EURO MAKE GAY DAY OF THANKSGIVING

BERLIN, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Thanksgiving was celebrated here by service the American church, at which Ambassador Jacob Gould Schurman President Coolidge's Thanksgiving proclamation. This was followed a luncheon at the Amerika Inn for the thirty American students by a dinner and dance under the auspices of the American chamber of commerce and the "American Luncheon Club." This latter function, attended by 400 persons, was addressed by Ambassador Schurman, who stressed necessity for international disunity.

So far as known, there was not a poor child but who got his dinner of turkey, duck, chicken; not an institution but what had its observance of the day, and not a home without a bountiful supply of all the Thanksgiving fixin's "that makes a feast."

The real spirit of Thanksgiving, that individual, the city, and the nation have much to be thankful for, was manifest everywhere. It was pre-eminent in the church services in which Catholic, Protestant, and Jew alike joined. It was reflected even in such institutions as the jails and homes for the impoverished.

Feast at Oak Forest Infirmary.
One of the greatest Thanksgiving feasts ever known in a county institution was held at Oak Forest infirmary where 4,500 patients and attendants sat down together at the banquet table.

Everything that any one has ever read of for Thanksgiving dinners, from the days of the Puritans, was on the table. There was a ton of turkey, two tons of geese, there was cranberry sauce, delicious celery, and stuff, and all the rest without which a Thanksgiving dinner just isn't.

And though the diners all fell to with a gusto almost equal to the supply, there was still some left as many of the patients made their way from the table.

In the Cook county jail and in the Reformatory there were similar scenes. Dinner was served with all the regulation dishes. Everything was done to a turn and all the prisoners were eager for the dinner bell.

Dancing and Joy Reign.
After the meal came entertainment. There was music and singing and some dancing, boys with boys, of course, and girls with girls, but dancing just the same—and joy, as the saying goes, reigning supreme.

Judge William R. Fetzner gave one of the many unique dinners of the city. In the Maxwell court, where he happens to be sitting, he gave a dinner for the 500 crippled children who attend the public schools. The kids, smiling and happy, were brought in the courtroom in the motor lorries which every day carry them to and from school. And when they arrived with their little twisted bodies and painfully set down to the banquet table, there were tears in more eyes than one, including those of the judge and of "Diamond Joe" Esposito, who was there to watch it all.

It was happy time and before the children left "Diamond Joe" made out a check for them all.

"Just a little individual cash present for each of them, God bless them," he said.

And he smiled through a threat of rain.

YANKS IN EUROPE MAKE GAY DAY OF THANKSGIVING

BERLIN, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Thanksgiving was celebrated here by services in the American church, at which Ambassador Jacob Gould Schurman read President Coolidge's Thanksgiving proclamation. This was followed by luncheon at the Amerika Institute by the thirty American students, and a dinner and dance under the auspices of the American chamber of commerce and the American Luncheon club. This latter function, attended by 400 persons, was addressed by Ambassador Schurman, who stressed the necessity for international disarmament.

Yanks, Champagne, Gayety.
PARIS, Nov. 26.—(U. N.)—Americans in Paris probably celebrated Thanksgiving with more gaiety than those in other European capitals. Parties were general, both in homes and at restaurants. At the present rate of exchange, the dollar buys more champagne than usual, adding to the American festivities.

MADRID, Nov. 26.—(U. N.)—Leaders of the American colony here celebrated Thanksgiving at a dinner given by Ambassador Moore.

CHICKEN ON MENU FOR COL. COOLIDGE ON THANKSGIVING

VERMONT, Vt., Nov. 26.—(AP)—Having regained much of his old-time vigor since his recent series of heart attacks, Col. John C. Coolidge, father of the President, sat down to an old-fashioned New England Thanksgiving dinner today. Although Col. Coolidge is a somewhat restless spirit, he seemed well, and dined early in the afternoon with his household.

The item usually associated with Thanksgiving dinners, turkey, was absent. Although Vermont produces turkeys, chicken holds favor in the region at Thanksgiving time and the menu was chicken fricasse.

Today a box of various kinds of food arrived from the White House.

COLLINS WARNS HOMES AGAINST HOLIDAY MORONS

Urges Mothers Guard Children Carefully.

Warning against morons was given to Chicago housewives and children yesterday by Chief of Police Morgan A. Collins, who declared that with the coming of the holiday season the menace of perverted persons is increased. He advised extreme caution in admitting strangers to the home, and offered several suggestions to help combat the danger.

"Mothers should guard their children from being approached by strangers outside their homes," said Chief Collins. "Particularly warn them to beware of men they do not know," he urged.

Urges Credentials Be Asked.
"Beware of bogus peddlers. Before admitting telephone collectors, gas and electric inspectors, messenger and delivery boys, be sure they identify themselves with the proper credentials. Many revolting crimes have been committed by moron fakers."

"Use extreme caution before admitting strangers. Safeguard yourself by equipping your door with a chain and lock or safety catch."

"Fake beggars are numerous at this time of the year. The Christmas season of giving is their harvest time. They prey on the generosity of the people. These impostors are also exceedingly dangerous and the law forbids their begging. Worthy persons,

BOYS PARADE AND PROTEST SEEKING OF THANKSGIVING ALMS

New York, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The custom of hundreds of New York children, who dressed in varicolored costumes, beg for alms on Thanksgiving day, was protested today by more than 500 members of the Madison Square Boys club, who took part in a parade against the practice. The boys were dressed in home costumes and carried banners reading: "American Boys don't beg."

Churches, public institutions and private families made the day one of special observance. With a pound of turkey ordered for every man in the United States army, soldiers from Panama to Nome and garrisons in the far east joined in Thanksgiving celebration, it was announced here.

A special service in memory of dead American Legionnaires was held in St. Patrick's cathedral. Special services also were held in Jewish synagogues and other churches.

dependent on charity, can obtain help from the county.

Says Police Eager to Help.
"Beware of the bogus religious worker who is seeking financial help, or soliciting magazine subscriptions. Too much care cannot be exercised by the woman at the home with her children."

"Help us to protect you. Call the police, Main 1319, if you have reason to believe that any criminal of the type I have mentioned is in your vicinity. Cooperate with us—we are trying to protect you."

DINNER DISPUTE ENDS BY BRIDE SHOOTING SELF

Mrs. Martha Reinhardt, 20, of 3116 West Madison street, wed a month, shot herself near the heart yesterday following a first quarrel with her husband, Henry, chief clerk for the Payson Manufacturing company, 2916 West Jackson boulevard.

Two invitations for Thanksgiving dinner had been received. Martha's mother had made her promise to come to dinner and bring Henry. And Henry had told his brother, J. C. Reinhardt, that they would eat turkey with him. The quarrel followed.

After the argument, Martha ran tearfully to her room. A shot was heard. Her husband found her unconscious with a revolver in her hand. He called the police. Held later at the station Reinhardt wept.

"O, I never thought she would do that," he cried. "I'm so sorry. Do you think she will ever forgive me?"

Preparations of relatives to entertain the couple were halted and instead they went to the county hospital. There it was said last night Martha probably will recover.

Mexican Deputies Pass Petroleum Bill, 136 to 1

Mexico City, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The chamber of deputies tonight finally passed the petroleum bill. The vote was 136, against 1. The bill, which deals with regulations for exploration of petroleum and gas and the operation of pipe lines and refineries, now goes to the senate.

U. S. TO BUY WAR BONDS DIRECT FROM OWNERS

Mellon to Eliminate All Brokers' Commissions.

Uncle Sam wants to buy back the war bonds as fast as he can. He wants to buy them direct from the owners and to pay top prices by eliminating all brokers' commissions.

With this purpose, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, through Federal Reserve bank, declared a new deal last night in favor of holding of Liberty bonds. Heretofore, the treasury has purchased bonds from its sinking funds through brokers or in the open market. Now it hopes to make such periodical purchases direct from the owners, thus saving commission charges to the sellers and the treasury.

Ready for $50,000,000 Worth.

As a starter, Secretary Mellon announced the treasury stands ready to buy $50,000,000 of Third Liberty 4 1/2 per cent bonds and solicits offers. The bonds must be offered at or below 101 1/4 and, of course, the lowest offers will be accepted. The market price last Wednesday was slightly below 101.

Owners desiring to sell their bonds 377,350 outstanding.

GLENCOE YOUTHS LEAVE HOMES TO SEEK FILM FAME

Three Glencoe youths, all imbued with the ambition to fill the shoes and symphonic green suits of Rudolph Valentino, left home last night. They were going, they told some girl friends, to Hollywood.

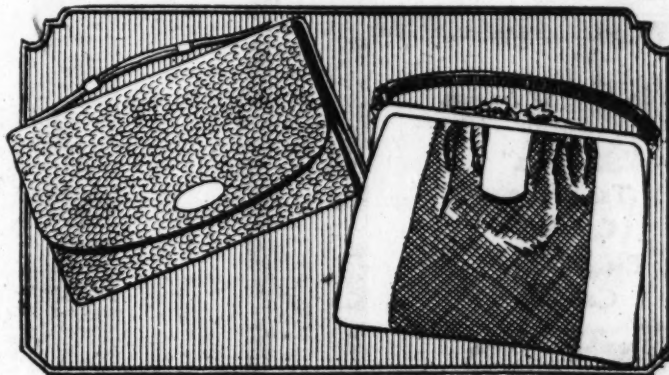

As soon as the girls let out the secret the parents of the three notified the Glencoe police. It was reported that the fugitives had a total capital of $140.

The youths are Stephen Chase, 16 years old, 508 Glencoe avenue; Jack Barry, 15 years old, 448 Glencoe avenue; and Extra Ferrerini, 15 years old. All are students at the Deerfield-Shielda High school.

should offer them through a bank, which in turn will deal with federal reserve banks, which are the official agencies of the government in such transactions. Proposals must be received by a federal reserve bank not later than Dec. 10, and payment for bonds accepted will be made on Dec. 29.

May Be Permanent Plan.

If the new method of purchasing bonds proves successful, the treasury intends to adopt it for all future purchases of war bonds through the sinking fund. The Third Liberty bonds are due in 1928 and will be paid off then. The original issue was $4,175,650,650, but up to July 31 a face value amount of $1,300,272,700 had been bought in and retired, leaving $2,875,377,350 outstanding.

SURTAX RATES EVENLY GRADED, GREEN INSISTS

Schedule Shows Uniform
Increase, He Says.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—[Special.]—Defending the new schedule of surtax rates as approved by the house ways and means committee, Representative Green (Rep., Ia.), chairman of the committee, declared today that they represent "the best balanced and most evenly graded schedule of surtaxes as far drawn."

Mr. Green made public tables prepared by Joseph M. McCoy, treasury secretary, which, besides showing the amount of taxes to be paid by persons with incomes of various sizes under the new bill, also give the actual percentage of income which would be paid in taxes by the different groups.

The tabulations disclose that, after allowing for exemptions and computing normal rates and surtaxes, there is a regular and uniform increase in percentage of income taken in taxes as the amount of income increases.

Income Per Cent of Taxes.
Taxes of persons with net incomes of $3,000 or less would amount to less than one per cent. Five per cent is reached at about $24,000. A person with a net income of $100,000 actually would pay slightly more than 24 per cent, although subject to the combined maximum normal and surtaxes of 28 per cent.

Representative Green's statement was in reply to Representative Rainey (Dem., Ill.) and Hull (Dem., Tenn.), the two members of the committee who will file minority reports. Both have assailed the surtax reductions on the ground that persons with incomes between $25,000 and $50,000 have failed to receive reductions in any way proportionate to the cuts made in taxes of both very small taxpayers and very large taxpayers.

"There has been some complaint with reference to the schedule of the rate of surtaxes from people that do not fully understand the situation," Mr. Green said.

Explains Top Bracket Cut.
"The surtax had to be graded up from one per cent to twenty per cent. This resulted in those in the upper brackets getting a greater reduction in dollars than those in the lower brackets, but this was because they had so much larger income."

"It is also true that those having incomes above a million dollars got nearly a fifty per cent reduction, but this was inevitable when the maximum surtax was reduced to 20 per cent. If such a reduction had been made in the lower brackets we would not have had sufficient revenue to carry on the government."

U. S. CAN LEAD WORLD IN AIR, BRITON ASSERTS

The best war will be decided by a blow struck by an air force, according to Lord Thomson of England, secretary of state for air in the cabinet of Ramsay MacDonald. Lord Thomson is visiting Chicago after a tour of the west.

While not attempting to predict the results of the trial of Col. William Mitchell at Washington, Lord Thomson declared yesterday that the United States could, if it wished, lead in aviation.

"You have the best pilots in the world, and space in which to fly," he asserted.

While insisting that the next war would be decided by a sudden aerial attack, Lord Thomson added, "I believe that aviation is sufficiently developed to put the United States in any immediate danger." He indicated to the belief that the United States would do better with a separate department of aviation, with highly trained personnel. Planes can be made faster than flyers can be trained, he asserted.

WRIGHT SILENT AS ANGRY WIFE ADDS TO CHARGES

in love with any one who flattered him, told him he was the most wonderful man in the world. He proposes to discard me, toss me aside—I'm only his wife—then marry this person.

"But I'll stop that, if I have to create a scandal."

"Just two months after Mamah Borthwick died, when the sod still was green on her grave, Mr. Wright met me. He hadn't been with me ten minutes before he said, 'You're mine. I'm going to have you.' I wasn't a young girl then. I was 43. I had my career, my friends, experience."

Tells of Trip to Orient.
"So there was no cheap farce about it. I went to him because I loved him. I gave him all my loyalty. And in return he shut my life into a small circle. Why, when we went to the orient, where women aren't accustomed to much freedom, my cook asked me how I could stand the treatment I received."

Then, crying, she said she was beaten, that one day he broke two of her ribs.

"When Frank got out of the realm of his art," Mrs. Wright adds, "he was lost. At dinner parties I used to twist the things he said into what he meant to say, and he got the reputation for cleverness. I always helped him out, except once."

Leaves Him to Fate.
"It was at a dinner party Baron Okura gave for us in Japan. Frank and I had quarreled before the party, so when I heard him floundering I turned my head the other way. Presently he sank, completely. On the way home he said, 'What a hell of a wife you are, not to help me out.'"

"And when we got home what a beating I got, what a beating."

Mrs. Wright is almost hysterical now as she walks about the room, wringing her hands.

Out at Spring Green last night the news of this newest crisis in the life of the laird of Tallensi filtered into town. Everybody recalled Olga, the Russian woman "who must be forty years old, even though she has the nickname of the 'dancer.'"

LONDON ADVISES MUSSOLINI TO AVOID ENGLAND

Labor Anger Keeps Him from Locarno Signing.

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
LONDON, Nov. 26.—Arrangements for the signing of the Locarno treaties, which will take place in the great reception room of the foreign office Monday. The British government has received assurances that Foreign Ministers Stresemann and Vandervelde will come and beside Briand of France as well, if he still is foreign minister. Premier Mussolini will not come, but will be represented by Sig. Scialoja.

It is reported that the word was secretly conveyed to Premier Mussolini that while the British government absolutely guarantees his safety, it could not protect him from insult in public, as the British laborites are particularly excited over his suppression of trade unions in Italy, and the public generally is displeased with his policy of suppressing liberty.

On account of the mourning for Queen Alexandra, all public entertaining in connection with the event has been canceled, but the visiting ministers will be entertained privately by Prime Minister Baldwin and Foreign Secretary Austen Chamberlain, and will be received privately by the king.

STRENGTHEN FASCISM

BY LARRY RUE.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
ROME, Nov. 26.—The legislative program of Fascist revolution marked the chamber of deputies meeting today. The body adopted a social law prohibiting the giving of alcohol to infants, a movie censorship for children, and other minor laws. A deputy representing the Garibaldi veterans demanded to know why the government destroyed the manifesto inviting the war veterans to celebrate Victory day on Nov. 4. The manifesto was cleverly worded, urging the combatants to continue their struggle for liberty. The undersecretary of state, responding to the interpellation, said the manifesto was destroyed because it might "disturb public order."

Pass Press Gag Law.

The Tribune learns that after passing the Fascist laws the chamber contemplates adjourning until Dec. 5.

2 WOMEN START DURKIN TO OHIO, IS GARY REPORT

Some of Martin Durkin's women friends were again suspected of having come to his assistance yesterday when H. C. Hybarger, special agent for the New York Central railroad at Gary, Ind., reported he believed Durkin had boarded a train there for Toledo, O.

Hybarger reported over the long distance telephone to Chief of Detectives William Schoemaker and Capt. John Stige of the detective bureau that an auto bearing the license plate issued to Charles Gainsburg, 4422 Sheridan road, appeared at the station in Gary shortly before the train for Toledo pulled in.

He said two women got out and one of them purchased a ticket to the Ohio city.

"When the train pulled in," Hybarger said, "a man leaped out of the automobile and boarded it. He was tall and resembled the pictures of Durkin."

BURGLARS SEND SCUDDERS FAKE GEMS AS JOKE

Lawrence W. Scudder, wealthy Lake Forest resident, from whose home thieves stole jewels valued at $3,000 while he and Mrs. Scudder were giving a dinner party on Nov. 11, received a package through the mail yesterday.

He opened it. Inside was a handkerchief taken by the gem thieves. It was knotted around a number of small hard objects. Mr. Scudder untied the knots. For a moment he thought the burglars had sent back their loot.

Before him lay excellent reproductions of the stolen pieces. But all were of glass or paste, the whole being worth less than $25. It was only a burglar's joke.

The package had been mailed in New York, where it is believed the thieves went to dispose of the jewels.

Mr. Scudder is head of an accounting firm with offices at 110 South Dearborn street.

when the senate will resume its sittings to approve the bureaucratic law permitting the discharge of government employees. The "hostile régime" law has been passed by the chamber, putting the press directly under control of the government.

The chamber tomorrow is expected to approve the podesta law and the law giving the premier the virtual powers of a dictator, at the same time prohibiting "insults" against the man holding this office. Another law, providing for the confiscation of property and the loss of citizenship of Italians abroad "calumniating the country," also is due to pass.

Senate Delays Action.

The senators, before approving the press law, are demanding to know whether the two royal decrees governing the press control at the present time will remain effective after the law is adopted. It is probable that the government will respond that the press decree is a national defense measure and hence will not be changed until it is considered advisable.

G. O. P. TO ROOT OUT RADICALS IN NEXT CONGRESS

Insurgents to Be Kicked Off Key Committees.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.) Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—[Special.]—The G. O. P. intends to root out the radicals in the next congress, which meets next month, or know the reason why. It has the votes in both houses and it is going to use them to extirpate, root and branch, the radical influences and forward looking innovations that made the last congress a nightmare for the old line statesmen of both major parties.

The Republican majority in the house will follow the example of the senate Republicans in casting forth the La Follette insurgents from the G. O. P. ranks and consigning them to a political no man's land. All the La Follette followers in the Wisconsin and other delegations will be escorted without formality to a back seat in the house organization, excluded entirely from the membership of "key" committees and placed at the tail end of committees of little importance.

Things Are Different Now.

In the last congress the La Follette group held the balance of power in both houses and was able, on numerous occasions, to influence materially the action of each body.

But things are different now and the G. O. P. thinks it begins to feel like old times again on Capitol hill. The wave of radicalism has receded. The Coolidge landslide buried La Follette. In the house, the regulars will have a majority of 25 to 30 over the Democrats and insurgents combined. In the senate, they will have a margin of about five over the Democrats and La Follette group combined.

The insurgents, or renegade Republicans, as they are dubbed by the regulars, are to be thrust outside the pale, not as a measure of punishment, leaders away, but in self-defense and devotion to the public welfare.

Representative Nicholas Longworth (Rep., O.), who will be elected speaker of the house, was the author of the movement to expel the La Follette members from the Republican organization of that body and he found himself powerfully supported by the White House. All uncertainty as to the fate of the La Follette bloc in this Congress was removed when President Coolidge took the position that party responsibility requires the exclusion from the Republican organization of those who do not support the Republican ticket.

Nelson Scheduled for A. Z.

His party, the President pointed out, has undertaken to accomplish a number of reforms set forth in its platform. The country has approved that program and has placed the party in power in order that the desired program shall be carried out. The country will hold the party responsible for this accomplishment.

The party, therefore, according to the President's contention, cannot afford to retain in its ranks persons who are not committed to the Republican program and would be able to scuttle it under certain circumstances.

A beginning already has been made by taking Representative Fear (Rep., Wis.) off the ways and means committee. He was replaced by a regular Republican. Representative Nelson (Rep., Wis.), manager of the La Follette presidential campaign, will be removed from the rules committee, on which he was placed at the behest of the La Follette bloc in the last congress.

Representative Lampert (Rep., Wis.) is seeking retention as chairman of the patents committee on the ground that he did not actually campaign for La Follette. Representative Peavey (Rep., Wis.) is to be thrown off rivers and harbors, and the place probably given to Representative W. E. Hull (Rep., Ill.).

In the senate the Republican majority confronts a new situation by reason of the deaths of Senators La Follette (Rep., Wis.) and Ladd (Rep., N. D.), after they had been expelled from the Republican organization and displaced from their committees. Whether the exclusion rule is to be enforced against young Bob La Follette, who succeeds his father, and Mr. Nye of North Dakota, if seated as successor to Dr. Ladd, is the question.

EYE E. A. OLSON AS HARMONY ENTRY IN MAYORAL RACE

G. O. P. Leaders Silent, but Talk Goes On.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Here's a political yarn that just simply won't down. It is that Edwin A. Olson, United States district attorney, is grooming himself and is being groomed by certain leaders as a candidate for the Republican nomination for mayor in 1927.

The principals will tell you they never heard of it. They say it's all too far ahead to talk about anyway. But it keeps bobbing up again from one source after another. Bits of evidence in support of the allegation continue to appear. So persistent has been the flow that the subject is one of the most interesting in the inner circles of politics.

Talked Of as "Neutral."

The basic elements of the yarn are that the district attorney, appointed as a Brundage man upon the initiative of the late United States Senator Medill McCormick, has had for several months a close understanding with McCormick's successor, Senator Charles S. Deneen, and that when the time comes Mr. Olson will be put forward by the Deneen forces as a "neutral" acceptable to them and that he will receive the Brundage endorsement.

These fundamentals fit in with Senator Deneen's known intentions of attempting harmony in the Republican ranks in Chicago on behalf of the national organization. There are two mayoral aspirants in his own ranks—County Recorder Joseph F. Haas and Edward R. Lisinger, member of the board of review.

There is a small flock of other potential candidates. Dr. John Dill Robertson is reported to be building an organization right now with Lindell aid. The Crowe-Barrett forces certainly will have a candidate of their own, possibly Charles V. Barrett.

And in a field of this sort District Attorney Olson might be brought forth as the closest approach available as a harmony choice.

Intimacy with Deneen Grows.

Since the day of his induction into Office, Mr. Olson apparently has forgotten all about his years long identification with the Brundage organization on the north side. On the other hand, there has been an increasing intimacy with Senator Deneen.

But throughout his term the district attorney has preserved a public appearance of political independence and has striven to build up a record of his own. Politicians say there always is ambition for promotion behind such an effort.

Although long standing agreements still bind the Brundage people to the Barrett-Crowe group, politicians recalling Olson's history were amazed when Olson a year or more ago began to assail State's Attorney Crowe.

POWER EXPERTS SUBMIT PLAN TO END COAL STRIKE

Provides Wage and Price Increases.

New York, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The committee on coal and giant powder, comprised of engineers, economists, publicists, lawyers, and business men from all parts of the country, today announced the issuance of a suggestion for a basis on which to settle the present strike in the anthracite coal fields.

Summary of Suggestions.

The plan, which has been sent to officials of both the miners and operators, contains the following suggestions:

A wage increase of fifty cents a day for the lowest paid miners, that is, day workers, who now receive between $4.52 and $5.95 a shift.

No price increase over the average 1924-25 pre-strike prices for companies showing over a ten per cent return for that period.

An increase of 25 cents a ton on only domestic sizes of coal. This, it is explained, would cover the cost entailed by the increased wages.

A revision of all piece work rates, both those now above the average and below the average annual earnings of $3,000.

Limitation of Check-Off.

A check-off of regular union dues only by operators of mines where a ballot of all the workers shows a two-third vote in favor of it.

Immediate appointment of a committee by the operators and miners to work out an adjustment of piece work rates and to supervise the balloting on the establishment of the check-off.

This same committee to submit to the consuming public six months before the expiration of the new agreement a complete report on the state and needs of the industry.

EARLING ESTATE $900,000; A THIRD GOES TO WIDOW

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The estate of the late Albert J. Earling, former president of the Milwaukee road, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Fitch in Milwaukee, two weeks ago, is valued at $900,000, according to the will which will be filed in Probate court at Deland, Fla., tomorrow.

The terms of the will, as announced at Daytona, Fla., where Mr. Earling had established his residence, leaves one-third of the estate to his widow, Mrs. Margaret Earling; the remaining two-thirds to be divided equally among his three children, Mrs. Lawrence Fitch, Milwaukee; Sherburne M. Earling, Chicago, and George F. Earling, personal property. The remaining $200,000 in real estate includes his Daytona home, some Florida land, and Butte, Mont., property.

head of the League of Nations mission investigating the deportations of Christians by the Turks, has here from Mosul. In an interview, Gen. Laiderer said: "I have formed the opinion that frontier incidents are not grave. I consider both parties equally responsible for the situation. The situation results from the definite demarcation of a temporary frontier."

"I found that the maps in possession were completely faulty. The position of certain villages visited the Zakho and Birejil where I found more than 4,000 people in a pitiful condition, completely demoralized. They suffered from disease, lack of food and shelter, and but for the work of the Iraq authorities they would have been completely terminated due to their harsh sufferings."

"The tales of Turkish atrocities consistent in their accounts of the murder of men, women and children and the violation of women's bodies arriving daily from the districts confirm the atmosphere which is important."

Reports Inhumane Treatment. "Owing to the refusal of the authorities to hold an inquiry into the deportations, I have been unable to form an opinion whether the deportations are a result of Turkish policy against the Christian populations or merely a by-product. Although our report is very reserved we find these people have been forced from their homes under most inhuman conditions. There is little doubt the responsibility of the Turkish officials who are guilty of the crimes."

The mission will report to Gen. Laiderer on Dec. 10. Col. Markus will return to Mosul to report any further incidents.

TERRIFIC WIND DO BIG DAMAGE IN DUTCH CITY

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.) THE HAGUE, Nov. 26.—Numerous shipping casualties are occurring as a result of a northwestern gale blowing on the Dutch coast. Six vessels broke from their moorings at the Rotterdam wharf and went adrift in the river, endangering other shipping.

Two locomotives and two passenger trains were blown off the tracks near the Rotterdam wharf. In Amsterdam a chimney stack 100 feet high crashed through a factory. A ferry boat capsized in the de Lee and all hands were drowned. Telegraphic and telephonic communication is seriously affected and boat services are considerably delayed.

Storms in Germany.

BERLIN, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Heavy winds accompanied by high winds swept many parts of Germany, seriously interfering with wire communications throughout the country. At N. H. Prussia, the three newly erected main masts of the radio station, each 150 meters high, were blown down by the storm. Heavy fallow are reported from the Bavaria highlands and the Black Forest regions.

Four Die in Denmark. (Chicago Tribune Press Service.) COPENHAGEN, Nov. 26.—This city's first blizzard last night cost four lives. It is feared that all ships were wrecked. All telegraphic communications are seriously handicapped.

COUNTRY FOLK, KING BID ADIEU TO QUEEN MOTHER

Sandringham Service for Alexandra Quiet.

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
LONDON, Nov. 26.—The first part of Dowager Queen Alexandra's funeral at Sandringham today was the farewell of a great queen to the people, the farewell of a mother to her family, and the farewell of a queen's wife to her people. The second part tomorrow will be in the streets of London.

Today's ceremony was all simplicity and homelike, the funeral of an old lady who had been popular for her charity, sweetness and kindness in the countryside, and who was mourned by relatives and neighbors. The only unusual note in today's ceremony was the tall grenadiers of the queen's own regiment, who marched the long three miles from the church to the railway station beside the coffin.

Ceremonies Are Simple.

The religious service in the little church at Sandringham, where the body has lain since Sunday, was simple and was confined only to members of the family. The royal party walked across the frosty lawns and fields to the church, where the services were conducted by the Bishop of Norwich and Dr. Grant, the royal chaplain.
King George and Queen Mary, and their sons knelt beside the coffin during the short, simple prayers. Outside, school children, villagers, and neighbors stood, waiting silently for the mourner to emerge, just as at any country funeral.

The prayers over, the royal family filed out, and then the grenadiers appeared, carrying the coffin, which was laid on a plain gun carriage. The king and his three sons fell in behind, marching all the way to Wolferton station, three miles distant. Behind, in a plain open carriage, rode Queen Mary, the queen of Norway, and other royal ladies. Then came a great crowd of country people on foot, headed by one of the dead queen's oldest friends, the 77-year-old Earl of Norfolk.

Weep as Body Passes.

There was no pomp about the funeral. The only uniforms were those of the ten grenadiers. All the rest were in plain black civilian clothes.
All along the route crowds of country folk were assembled to see the coffin of the queen, who had been a neighbor as well as queen, go by, the women mostly weeping and the men with bowed heads.

At the little wayside station of Wolferton a guard of honor of the local territorial militia was drawn up and a band was playing a funeral march.
The funeral train was waiting and the coffin was quickly placed in the railway hearse.

A reverent gathering of London's public attended the last homecoming of Queen Alexandra to the capital this evening. Great crowds assembled at King's Cross station when the train arrived from Wolferton shortly before noon. The coffin was immediately placed in a large closed hearse covered with her majesty's own standard and preceded by police, taken to St. James palace.

Marconi Operators Go on Strike; 5,000 to Quit Jobs

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
LONDON, Nov. 26.—The Association of Wireless and Cable Telegraphers today declared a strike of all wireless operators employed by the Marconi radio company. The secretary said that at the end of the week about 500 will be idle. About 5,000 men are involved, and they all will quit the ships as they arrive in port. The strike is against a proposed reduction in wages.

Young People! You just ought to see our Junior Floor. It's all ready, more than a month before the Big Day. But you have all this time to enjoy the exciting new things coming in every day, the jolly new decorations. Come down today and take your time looking over everything. And here are some remarkable values that will interest mothers, as well.

The Second Annual Selling Girls' New Wool Frocks $6

Those who remember our last year's selling of Frocks at this price will know what values they were. And when we say that this year's are even better, you can imagine how good they are. Flannels, serges, tweeds, novelty stripes, plaids, light and dark colors, and workmanship as good as you find on Frocks that cost three times as much. More styles than last year, more in actual numbers to choose from, excellent materials. Sizes 6 to 16.

RAILROAD ASKS PUBLIC TO GIVE IT A NICKNAME

C. & E. I. Offers Prizes for Eye-Catching Title.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.
A railroad 80 years old, with 945 miles of line track, wants a new name. It has a corporate name, the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railway company, which cannot be conveniently discarded, but the new president, T. C. Powell, desires a popular name.

He wants something to put on the cars, on the letter heads, in the advertising, and on divided checks—when times are prosperous. He is after a trademark, that will catch the eye, be expressive, and be adopted by the public. He does not want a name that will indicate the road is south, north, east, or west, but one that will tell its position and service. He is willing to give $100 for the best suggestion and $50 for the second best.

"Erie" One of the Best.
Among railroad men "Erie" is classed as one of the best names. It was considered so good by that road that the official title, New York, Lake Erie and Western, has been discarded for "Erie Railroad." The Southern railway's double ring, with "E. R." in the center, and in the circle, "The Southern Serves the South," also has a strong appeal.

The Chinese trademark of the Northern Pacific, which wishes the patron "good luck," traces its origin back to about 3,000 B. C. The road has recently put out a booklet giving the history and significance of its symbol.

Snappy Names for Short Route.
The North Star Route "phrase excites one's imagination. The railway guide shows that this is the Minneapolis and Rainy River railway with a right of way 26 miles long, stretching north from the capital of Minnesota. There are some railroads of which the trade name is more popular than the official title. The Monon is one of these. Few persons ever say that they are going to take the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville road. The train passes through the town of Monon between Chicago and Indianapolis. Nor is the New York, Chicago and St. Louis road frequently referred to as such. It is usually known as the Nickel Plate. What is "nickel plated" about the road has been forgotten.

"Big Four" Still Sticks.
The Chicago and Great Western was known as the "Maple Leaf" route because its lines are in that shape. But that did not appeal much to the public. However, "Big Four" still sticks to the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railroad. The Wabash flag remains on the advertising of that road and the triangle of three lines is still used by the Chicago and Alton.

The Florida East Coast railway is advertised as "the Flagship system" in honor of its builder. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy is called "Burlington" for short because of the residence of one of its early operators. The Atchafalaya, Toledo and Santa Fe is advertised to the riding public as the Santa Fe, but the wolves and the lambs of the New York stock exchange still recognize it on the ticker as "Atchafalaya."

U. S. WILL HALT MAIL DELIVERY ON CHRISTMAS

Postal Employees to Get Entire Day Off.

With the last of the pre-Christmas holidays out of the way, Chicago's 13,000 regular postal employees today will brace themselves for a "bullet" rush, which includes several factors never before encountered at one time.

The fact that Christmas falls on Friday in itself affords a great problem, according to postal authorities. Added to this, every postoffice in the United States will be closed all day for the first time in history; Thursday, the day preceding Christmas this year, normally is the heaviest day of the week in the postal business; Saturday, the day after Christmas, always is an unsatisfactory day for mail handling and will be especially so when following a holiday. And Sunday is a total loss from a delivery standpoint.

Early Mailing Imperative.
As a result of all these things, Postmaster Arthur C. Leuder pointed out yesterday the perennial urge to mail early is cried out with more feeling than ever before.

Deadlines for dispatching of mail to be assured delivery in the United States outside of Chicago before Christmas has been positively fixed at Dec.

John Foster, 82, Found Dead
in Alley Under Window

John Foster, 82, was found dead yesterday in an alley beneath the window of his room at the Reliance hotel, 459 South State street. It was recalled that on Wednesday he had said, "Years ago I had a home and a family. My wife died. Now that I'm old my son doesn't want me."

Charles Weaver, 7119 Normal boulevard, got quick service last night when he went to the Englewood police station to report that his automobile had been stolen from the vicinity of 63d and Halsted streets. The car was already at the station. Policemen Gibbons and O'Brien, obeying a hunch, pursued the thieves as they passed them at 71st and Halsted streets. At 7th and Green streets the pair left the machine and escaped through an alley.

OAK PARK DOCTOR AND 3 MORE DIE OF AUTO INJURIES

Toll Reaches 717 for the Year in County.

WILLIAM DOWNEY

Four deaths yesterday as a result of automobile accidents raised the total for the year in Cook county to 717.

Dr. Frances Butcher, 60 years old, died at her home, 133 North East avenue, Oak Park, of injuries sustained Nov. 23 when she was struck at East avenue and South boulevard by an automobile driven by Richard Kutz.

Charles Witham, 64 years old, 3561 South Wells street, was fatally injured last night when a wagon on which he was riding was struck at La Salle street and Pershing road by a taxicab. Witham was hurled from the wagon and his head struck the pavement, fracturing his skull. The cab was driven by Anthony Gregg.

Death in Blue Island.

William Downey, 64 years old, died in the St. Francis hospital at Blue Island of injuries suffered Tuesday, when he was struck by an automobile driven by John Glusko, of Kankakee, Ill. Downey was a resident of Blue Island and the accident occurred near his home.

John Meyer, 53 years old, 3217 North Halsted avenue, was fatally injured last night when he was struck by an automobile driven by Dr. Daniel Sokolowski, 1244 Noble street, at Ashland avenue and Michigan street. Meyer was hurled twenty feet and suffered a broken leg and several fractured ribs. Thomas Vavra, 40 years old, driver of the automobile, was arrested.

Three injured in crash.

Three persons were injured when the coupe in which they were riding was struck by another car and thrown against a safety island at 47th street and Michigan street. They are Maurice Sachs, 2353 Wilson avenue, his wife and their 6 year old daughter, Bernice. The Sachs car was turned over. The driver of the other car did not stop.

John Paprock, 3 years old, 1313 Washington avenue, was seriously injured when a truck on which he was riding with his father collided with an automobile driven by Abraham Mendel, 1330 South Albany avenue, in front of 1235 Washington avenue. The boy's skull was fractured.

Aaron Carlson, 37 years old, 2234 Knox avenue, died Wednesday of injuries suffered Oct. 26.

FIVE EASTERN COLLEGES OPPOSE CO-ED SMOKING

New York, Nov. 26.—Five eastern colleges for women have gone on record as being opposed to following Bryn Mawr's action in permitting students to smoke. The New York Herald-Tribune will say tomorrow. Officials of Wellesley, Russell Sage, Smith, Pennsylvania College for Women and Mount Holyoke colleges, stated emphatically there is no prospect of an "immediate change of attitude."

Russell Sage college reported that "smoking has never been a serious problem." Pennsylvania College for Women answered: "The opinion at a recent meeting of the college council was that the students' sentiment is against smoking at this college that legislation is necessary here."

KILLED BY AUTOS

WILLIAM DOWNEY OF BLUE ISLAND (left) and Dr. Frances Butcher, Oak Park, who died yesterday.

HANDS OF DEATH

The hands of the clock indicate the number of deaths by autos, guns, and moonshine in Cook county since Jan. 1. Yesterday was the three hundred and thirtieth day of 1935.

Drives Car Into River; Family of Four Wiped Out

New York, Nov. 26.—(Special).—A father, mother, son and daughter were drowned tonight when their automobile plunged over the string place under the Brooklyn bridge at the foot of Jay street, Brooklyn, and disappeared in twelve feet of water.

The chauffeur escaped by diving through an opening in the side of the car after it had sunk. He said the name of the victims was Belladonna, and their home White Plains.

Gentle told the police he mistook the pier for a straight thoroughfare and drove at a rapid pace into the river.

Who Wins or Loses By Italy's Debt Settlement?

IF THERE ARE ANY EUROPEANS LEFT who would like to paint Uncle Sam in the role of Shylock, remarks the Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph, they will be disappointed at the news of the agreement concluded at Washington on November 14 for the payment of Italy's war debt to the United States. "Short of throwing off all interest or canceling the principal as well, the agreement gives Italy about all that a debtor willing to pay would expect to receive from a considerate creditor," agrees the Chicago Tribune, while the Baltimore Sun hails the debt funding agreement as "another milestone along the road to international economic stability."

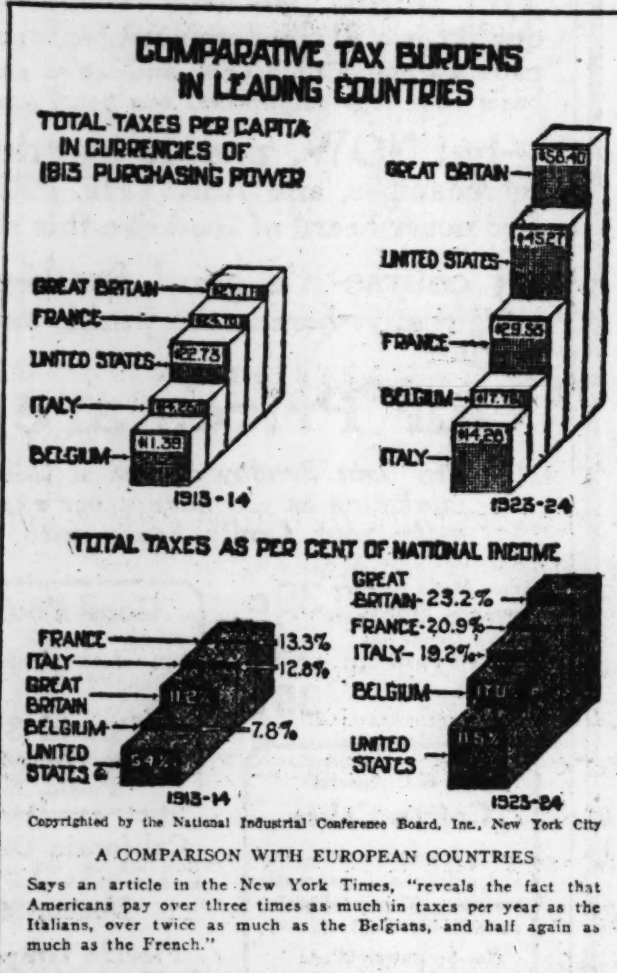

"The American people will lose heavily on the debt settlement with Italy, but it is a wise settlement for all that," declares the Springfield Republican, and this conclusion is also reached by the large majority of representative American newspapers. Three well-known Washington correspondents—David Lawrence, of the Consolidated Press Association; Clinton W. Gilbert, of the Philadelphia Public Ledger; and W. W. Jermaine, of the Seattle Times, agree that there was no alternative but to grant Italy what amounts to a 75 per cent. cancellation of the principal and interest charges combined over a period of 62 years. Read all of the interesting details with press comment in The Literary Digest for November 28.

Should the Submarine Be Outlawed?

THE TORPEDOED LUSITANIA is the symbol, to the popular mind, of the submarine's war-time terror. And the fact that in time of peace the undersea boat is so often a death-trap for its crew makes many gravely question whether it ought not to be abandoned. The loss of the American S-51 off the New England coast in September, and of the British M-1 in the English channel seven weeks later, are only the latest of a series of post-war submarine disasters that have afflicted the navies of the United States, Great Britain and Japan. The tragic and mysterious sinking of the giant sub-mersible Monitor M-1, with its entire crew of sixty-nine officers and men, has aroused vigorous popular agitation in England for the complete abolition of the submarine.

In America the prevailing sentiment toward such a proposal seems to be one of sympathy tempered with doubt as to its feasibility. In Japan the Minister of the Navy calls it "good in principle," but fears that it is not practicable. In France, where the submarine is regarded as a very necessary weapon of defense, the idea finds scant favor. Read this interesting article in this week's "Digest."

PRESIDENT READY TO FLEE PEKING AS FENG NEARS

Chang Is Crushed; Red Leader Due to Control.

PEKING, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Marshal Tuan Jih-Jui, chief executive in the Peking provisional government, is prepared to leave Peking at a moment's notice. The Christian general, Feng Yu-Hsiang, leader of China's bolsheviks, is expected to arrive shortly, probably to assume control of the government.

The chief executive today informed the cabinet that he desired to resign, but his colleagues pressed him to continue in office. Marshal Tuan's belongings, however, are all packed for his departure.

Although the resumption of telegraphic communication with Mukden today failed to bring confirmation of reports of the overthrow and imprisonment of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, the Manchurian dictator, it appears, definitely established that his power is crumbling.

Chang Still in Command. Martial law prevails in Mukden and, while Chang appears to be there and still in command of events in the city, his chief lieutenant, Gen. Yang Yu-Ting, former governor of Kiangsu, is reported to have fled to Dairen, the port of the Manchurian forces back from Shanghai and the Yangtze river.

The crumbling of the Mukden leader's authority is said to be due to disapproval by various followers of Chang Tso-Lin's desire to extend his influence outside Manchuria and to fight for the retention of Shantung province.

Revolts Against Chang. TIENTSIN, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Gen. Li Ching-Ling, civil governor of Chihli province, who had been counted a supporter of Chang Tso-Lin, the Man-

CHAOS

Feng Yu-hsiang, the Christian general, has now taken control of Peking, and President Tuan Jih-Jui is ready to flee from the capital. Meanwhile the power of Chang Tso-Lin, the Manchurian war lord, is swiftly crumbling in the north, giving Feng a free hand in Peking. While Chang still is in control in his capital, Mukden, his followers are deserting him because of his efforts to extend his power to Shantung. His chief lieutenant has fled to Dairen.

churian dictator, has declared Chihli province independent, "in order to provide a buffer between Manchuria and Peking."

The governor says he will only accept the orders of the chief executive in Peking. This action amounts to open revolt against Chang Tso-Lin. Various reports indicate a widespread intrigue resulting from the cooperation of Feng Yu-Hsiang, the Christian general, with the Young Mukden party, which is urging Chang Tso-Lin's son, Chang Hsueh-Liang, to become its leader. There is no evidence, however, that the latter intends to desert his father.

The civil governor of Shantung province, Gen. Chang Tsung-Chang, is the only Fengtien leader south of the Great Wall loyal to Chang Tso-Lin.

ROY, 4, DIES OF SCALDS. John Roy, 4, died yesterday at his home, 1243 Portland avenue, Chicago Heights, from scalds received four days ago when he fell into a pan of hot water.

DISPLAY OF FINE CATTLE, HORSES OPENS SATURDAY

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Hundreds of animals arrived over different railroads yesterday and were put in their stalls and groomed for the official opening of the twenty-sixth International live stock exposition at the Union stockyards tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock.

Three carloads coming from the American royal show, just closed at Kansas City, and a carload from the recent Toronto show were unloaded yesterday afternoon.

The Canadian train carried the Prince of Wales' herd of Shorthorns, headed by the undefeated champion, King of the Fairies.

Thirty states and four Canadian provinces will be represented when all the cattle, sheep, horses, hogs, grain and hay are put in their places in the international amphitheater. There will be nearly 12,000 head of live stock.

It's Grain and Hay Show, Too. There are more than 5,000 entries of grain and hay samples now being put in place at the grain and hay show held as a permanent feature of the international live stock show.

Robert L. P. Duncan of Fortarshire, Scotland, who will judge the Shorthorns, was out making a preliminary inspection of the animals in their stalls yesterday afternoon.

Judge J. Egerton Quested of England is expected here today. He will tie the ribbon on the grand champion beef animal of the show.

Today in the noncollegiate live stock judging contest twenty-two teams, or a total of 110 contestants, will compete for honors in the arena preliminary to the official opening of the show tomorrow. Mississippi is the new contender for honors in the contest, where twenty-two states are represented, competing for scholarships offered by the Chicago Association of Commerce.

Fine Horses to Compete. The show of harness and saddle horses, held as a part of the international live stock show, will open tomorrow night, Chicago night. Only representatives of local stables will compete on that night.

Monday night the tanbark oval will be turned over to hot contests between saddle and driving horses from stables in every part of the country, including prize winners from the New York horse show which just closed.

The intercollegiate live stock judging contest, the opening event of the show, which lasts until Dec. 5, will be held tomorrow.

The 284 carloads of cattle in the carload division of the show break all previous records. They come from sixteen states and Canada. In addition there are 183 carloads of fat cattle, Herefords leading with 66 loads of yearlings and Angus ranking second with 56 loads. There will be 21 carloads of fat Shorthorns, and one of Galloways.

Don't buy Water

When you buy Heinz Tomato Ketchup you pay for rich tomato substance—and not for water. Long patient cooking carries off the water in steam, leaving a full-bodied concentrated ketchup that tastes better and goes farther. Think of that next ketchup-buying time.

Buy Your Sunday Dinner at This Store

There WAS a time when people used to be a little shy of this store—they'd see the beautiful displays, and hear about the wonderful quality of foods sold here, and they'd say to themselves, "Of course, their prices are too high for ME."

The policy of this store has never changed—quality is still the dominant feature; the beautiful displays are more attractive than ever, and we're selling first-quality food on the basis that was established ten years ago.

—but NOW, people wonder, when they see the merchandise, and ASK THE PRICE — "Can it be GOOD? I've never heard of food like this at such a low price!"

Of course it's good food—the best that can be bought anywhere in the world, and it is just as true now as ever that

Our Prices are Never High

Buy your Sunday dinner at this store—you'll enjoy your marketing as you have never enjoyed it before, and you'll make your family happy with an unusually good meal.

A band of crooks, stumbling upon a body that had died six months for the purpose of blackmailing him, Doris. The girl is beautiful and her claim to. She is in reality a beauty Bill Gibbons, asks Doris to marry him by announcing he was wife is alive and demands fifty thousand dollars to pay the money, she Adrian has tricked her. Some makes an investigation. His wife's husband after Lady Shale's death in her sister, Madam Georgette, a fact any information. Doris rebels at the any information. She has a certain Charter, and takes a job as a maid Doris, and while she is with him and is scolded by madam's husband, madam's house and her employer, decides to blackmail her.

INS A TR Georgette's voice was strange of Mrs. Holden's cruel design. "How much—do you want?" "Shall we say—need?" "A word." "I should think—five thousand." "Georgette started." "Five thousand, I haven't—I couldn't get." "Surely Mr. Given would be." "But it is so much. You don't my money in the business." "It is really very little," said to a staccato whisper. "Very little." The unhappy woman gasped to raise five thousand pounds to do it, would take many days. Mimi went on reluctantly, your husband. I'm sure he will know how devoted you are to Winchell, who was working for useful information. She has known—I know such a lot." To poor Georgette this seemed to befriend Doris, in whom she this cruel, heartless woman! A sudden departure; her tears at found out as much as she could. Madam remembered now what to gain information from books mean the whole thing seemed. Mimi decided with a certain too far. Georgette needed dash.

Shale's breakfast, untouchable definite wording hint. She had grown old, haggard, taken it, as she put it to herself. Mrs. Holden folded up her madam, perhaps I won't bother you. "And as for Doris, I know she take the rest of the day—right as again until you wish to receive. take up her story in life as I know. "I have it," she said, after a moment's reflection. "If you will be so good, and you will supervise the in them a little bundle of notes. Five thousand pounds." "No, no, I can't do it! It's Mimi dropped her cruel heart. "Then I must see Mr. Given." "One thousand is the most that? You shall have the rest in a week or two—as soon as I tell me where to send the money. Georgette's nerves had gone. Her only thought was her past. He would never under ornament.

And yet Mimi's words about had, in a vague, unrealized way to see this daughter of hers; the her husband. Mimi gave a scornful little replied. "The immediate expense with a first installment of two the wretched woman whom she that, she told herself, the money. "Then two thousand." "Get try so hard. Do believe me, Mrs. Mimi gathered up her bag. "My chauffeur will call tomorrow." "And I hope we shan't have to." She stood at the open door, musing and puff from her bag. "Thank you so much, madam." "Don't bother; I can do it." She crossed the busy show, adding her thanks as she weaved from the door. A commissionaire bowed to Mimi, stood respectfully at the Mimi hesitated on the pavilion consulted an engagement book. Then, "Home," she said, and climbed into her seat. The more luxurious, one pulled Mimi was laughing triumphantly stepped out of the newly. Sir Adrian's face was peculiarly severe entrance of Madam hours of his life. His morning the private inquiry agent who the whole circumstances of his touched, grew cold as he read the document.

McNeil, the agent, gave her facts; he made no effort to her theories. He summed up. "My investigations convince me, in fact, her maid, one Adrian and left Alas with the commanding as Sir Adrian Shale. See Report II." And it was "Report II." The three pages of neat typeset they led. The movements of "fairly full details; how they had the period from the 11th of record of them"; how eventually Mamirose, where the report circumstances, Lady Shale being whole fever.

GASOLINE ALLEY—SOUNDS LIKE HIGH FINANCE

A. A. McCORMICK, EX-EDITOR AND ALDERMAN, DIES

Was Leader in City and County Politics.

(Picture on back page.)
Alexander A. McCormick, former newspaper publisher, civic and political leader, one-time president of the Cook county board, and twice alderman of the exclusive old Sixth ward, died at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home, 237 East Delaware place, from an infection of the heart. The illness which had been steadily last spring and now let go its hold.

McCormick was 62 years old. He was only slightly ill at first and was not seriously during the summer. For the last few weeks his condition had been desperate. No funeral arrangements had been made last night. His brother-in-law, E. J. Warner, announced they will be made today.

Successful as Publisher.
The career of Mr. McCormick was a success of newspaper, civic, and political life. As a newspaper publisher he was for a time a power in the communities in which he guided the destinies of newspapers. As a leader and politician he was rated generally as one of the most progressive aldermen Chicago has known.

Coming to Chicago in the early nineties, Mr. McCormick was first connected with the publishing department of McClure & Co. He was married to Kara Warner of Lake Forest, Ill., in 1892 to Miss Maude Warner, daughter of the old Times-Herald, a position he held until 1901. In that year the Times-Herald was consolidated with the old Record, and Mr. McCormick then became the general manager of the Record-Herald.

He held this position for two years, and in 1904 he became editor and publisher of the Chicago Evening Post.
He left the Post in 1906 to become editor and publisher of what was known as the Star League—the Indianapolis Star, the Muscle Shoals Star, and the Three Haute Star—which are under the same ownership as the Post.

Left Indiana for Chicago.
Two years later, after he had lifted these papers to a paying basis, he left his interest in the Star League and returned to Chicago. He has resided here ever since.

Mr. McCormick was vice president of the American Newspaper Publishers' association in 1905-6. He was a member of the American Academy of Political and Social Science. He was president of the county board from 1912 to 1914, and became alderman of the old Sixth ward in 1915, holding that office for two successive terms.

He is survived by his widow and by a daughter, Mrs. Julia Sturges. His only son, Alexander A. McCormick Jr., was killed in France.

William C. Collins Dies; Burial in Rock Island, Ill.

William C. Collins, 65, died yesterday at his home, 2621 Pine Grove avenue, following a long illness. Mr. Collins was for many years a department manager for Swift & Co., later manager of the United States Glue company, and an official of the Keystone Steel and Wire company of Peoria. He had been a member of the legislature. He was a Mason and a deacon in the First Presbyterian church. He is survived by his widow, Anna J. Collins, and two sons, Frank H. and Campbell Collins. Service will be held at the family residence today at 1 p. m.; burial at Rock Island.

FUNERAL RITES FOR VETERAN TEACHER TODAY

Mrs. Sadie Brown Lane, a veteran Chicago school teacher, who died of heart disease Wednesday at the Presbyterian hospital, will be buried this afternoon at 2:30 from the home of her uncle, Dr. Raymond S. Brown of Joliet, Ill.

Mrs. Lane was born at Morris, Ill.,
in 1851, began to teach school at Hawthorne, Ill., in 1886, and in 1891 entered the Chicago public school system as a teacher in the McPherson school,
Lawrence avenue and Lincoln street.
Two weeks ago she collapsed in her 8th grade classroom there and a nervous breakdown followed.

For the last ten years she had lived at the Plymouth hotel, Broadway and Leland avenue. She is survived by

36,000 SEE GRANGE BEAT THE BEARS, 0 TO 0 NEBRASKA TURNS BACK NOTRE DAME CAVALRY, 17-0

SHOCK TROOPS SHOCKED TWICE IN 1ST QUARTER

45,000 Fans Witness
Thrilling Battle.

HORSEMEN UNSADDLED

NOTRE DAME, NEBRASKA. (Special.)—The Bears' surprise victory over the Nebraska Cardinals yesterday afternoon at Lincoln, Neb., was a thrilling battle, witnessed by 45,000 spectators. The Bears, led by their new manager, C. C. Pyle, defeated the Cardinals, 0 to 0, in a game that was a tactical masterpiece. The Bears' defense was impenetrable, and their offense was too strong for the Cardinals to handle. The game was a tactical masterpiece, and the Bears' victory was a surprise to many.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—In the presence of 45,000 spectators, the largest crowd which ever saw a football game in the Missouri valley, Nebraska defeated Notre Dame in the Memorial stadium today, 17 to 0.

It was a clean cut victory and the Cornhuskers put the game on ice in the first quarter when Coach Rockne had his shock troops in the battle. In this period the Bears' defense was too strong for the Cardinals to handle. The game was a tactical masterpiece, and the Bears' victory was a surprise to many.

Notre Dame was the victim of a back play in the opening minutes of play. Capt. Ed Weir of Nebraska was the star of the game. He was a tactical masterpiece, and his victory was a surprise to many.

Quarterback Parisien fell on the ball on his 4 yard line. On the first play Notre Dame was caught holding and the ball went to its one yard line. Coach then punted from behind his line and out of bounds on the 10 yard line. Two line plunges by Notre Dame ended the first quarter.

On the next play, the Cornhusker full back skirted the Notre Dame left end and scored. Capt. Ed Weir kicked the extra point, making the score 7 to 0 in favor of Nebraska.

After Weir kicked off for Nebraska, the ball went over the Notre Dame goalposts for a touchback. The visitors did not gain and Coach punted out of bounds on his 47 yard line.

Bears Frenzied 15 Yards. Nebraska's march to a second touchdown was spoiled by a 15 yard penalty for holding and Coach Weir punted the ball to the Notre Dame goal line. Coach Weir's team put the ball in play on the 20 yard line but could not gain. Coach punted out of bounds in mid-air.

SENDS PENN TO GRID VICTORY

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The University of Pennsylvania beat Cornell, 7 to 0, this afternoon in a football game that might be described in borrowed language, as a pitchers' duel. They played two dreary quarters, during which it would have been cruel to say that either team was worse than the other.

Rogers Scoops Up Cornell Fumble and Penn Wins, 7-0

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER. (Chicago Tribune Press Service.) Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The University of Pennsylvania beat Cornell, 7 to 0, this afternoon in a football game that might be described in borrowed language, as a pitchers' duel. They played two dreary quarters, during which it would have been cruel to say that either team was worse than the other.

There was a thorough pickup at the Red rush of Cornell broke against Penn's line in an attack at Cornell's 40 yard line. The Cornell backs were passing the ball from man to man like politicians in a graft crusade, when suddenly the darned thing got away from them and bounded loose.

Charlie Rogers of the Penn backfield, a junior in school but an adult now in football, hooked it in the crook of his arms as it dropped his legs, and then began to whip his legs in a frantic hike for the Cornell goal. Perhaps he was not sure that he was running for the right goal.

Then Al Kruess of the celebrated midwestern Kruess family, kicked the goal and Penn won the game. Nobody in the stands knew who actually fumbled the ball in the Cornell back field. It was being flipped about in one of those four handed transactions when it got away.

Nobody Saw Fumble. Up is the press coop, the boys were hawking at the announcer to name a name for them, and to quiet them down, he finally named Pratt, Cornell's best back. But as a matter of fact, although there will be journalistic unanimity in blaming Pratt for the

BRADLEY WINS FROM LOMBARD BY 7-0 COUNT

Peoria Team Scores in Opening Period.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Bradley won the Illinois intercollegiate title this afternoon by defeating Lombard, 7 to 0. Lombard put up the stiffest fight of the season against Bradley. The Peoria team made its score in the first period. Lineup: BRADLEY (7). LOMBARD (0).

MONMOUTH, 12; KNOX, 0

Monmouth, Ill., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Monmouth defeated Knox here this afternoon. It was the first time since 1914 the Maple City school has won from Monmouth and by the victory Monmouth lays claim to the 1925-26 Monmouth championship, having won six games while Bradley, the nearest competitor, has copied five.

Quincy High Full Back Breaks Leg in 0-0 Game. Quincy, Ill., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Russell Beer, full back of the Quincy High school football team, had his right leg broken today in the Quincy-Hanibal game, which ended in a 0 to 0 tie.

Red's First Game Fattens His Purse $10,000 to $20,000. Next to the interest in seeing Red Grange carry the ball in yesterday's Bears-Cardinals game, the 36,000 fans and the several times that number who couldn't get in, were chiefly curious about "How much did Grange get for playing?"

Rial Rolfe Wins at Pinehurst. Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Rial Rolfe of Chicago, former western intercollegiate champion, won his second round match in the annual Carolina tournament here today on the twentieth green after a hard battle with R. G. Morrison of Oakland, Pittsburgh. Rolfe lost the first three holes but squared the match and won on the twentieth when he put his second shot four feet from the pin for a birdie three.

WERE THEY COUNTING THE CROWD?

Red Grange and his manager, C. C. Pyle, were caught in deep conference yesterday on the Bears' bench before the Bears-Cardinals game at Cub park. As Red and Pyle draw a percentage of the gate, it might have been the famous Illinois and his new manager were counting the crowd, but then again it may be that Pyle was just whispering a few words of encouragement and advice to the redhead before Grange took the field in his first appearance in pro football.

Mercer Bows to Marquette by 30-0 Score

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Flashing a strong aerial attack Marquette university crushed the Mercer university Bears of Macon, Ga., 30 to 0, in an international football game in the Marquette stadium this afternoon. It was the first varsity game for fourteen Marquette players.

THRILLS AWAIT SPECTATORS AT TRIBUNE RACE

Five Mile Event Includes 16 Hurdle Barriers.

BY MORROW KRUM.

Have you ever seen a real cross country race? Do you know what physical hardships confront the runners? Do you think you could run five miles this afternoon or tomorrow?

If you've never witnessed a real cross-country race, and if you want a thrill, go out to the base-ball field in Washington park Sunday afternoon and watch the Tribune Athletic association's third annual cross-country race. There will be no admission and there will be an exhibition of endurance and strength that will interest everybody.

Entries Total 148.

Exactly 148 of the best distance men in the middle west have entered the race. Some may not come. It is certain there will be more than 100. Among them are such men as Roy Day, Walter A. Kinsella, St. Joseph's, New York; E. N. Osterlund, Finnish-American A. A.; Roy McHugh, I. A. C.; H. C. Jacobson, Milwaukee, and others prominent in track circles.

A crowd of 50,000 persons could witness the race. There will be room for any one who wants to come and each spectator will be enabled to watch the entire progress of the race.

16 Hurdles to Jump.

The track in the park is 1 1/2 miles long and the runners will circle it four times for a total distance of 6 miles. In their run they will have to jump sixteen hurdles. It will be an event worth watching.

There are thirty-two individual prizes, so there will be as hot a contest for thirtieth place in the race as there will be for first place.

Dressing quarters will be established Sunday in the basement of the South Park commissioners' building in Washington park, just a few steps west of Fifty-seventh street and Cottage Grove avenue. Runners are expected to be in the lobby of the building ready to receive their numbers by 2 o'clock.

PULLMAN TECH
DOWNS FENGER
BY 33-0 SCORE

Scoring sixteen first downs to its opponents' one, the Pullman Tech grid machine rolled its way to a 33 to 0 triumph over Fenger at Pullman yesterday. Capt. Borochi, left end, was the star, registering four touchdowns, two of them after long runs through a broken field. Quarter Back Prabel helped his leader pile up the big score by booting three kicks after tallies.

Lineup:
PULLMAN TECH (23) FENGER (9)
Borochi Johnson
Lester Patterson
Bate Groves
Powers Blay
Adams Kolomyak
Barrett Bunting
Prabel White
Juch Alenah
Sprettar W. Davis
Devitt R. H.
Touchdowns—Borochi (4), Prabel (1).
Points after touchdowns—Prabel (3).
Referee—Ashley; umpire—Clark.

Harvey Eleven Beats
Pullman-Roseland, 3 to 2

The Harvey football team defeated the Pullman-Roseland Panthers, 3 to 2, yesterday. Couchie made a field goal for Harvey in the second quarter, while a safety in the third period gave the Panthers their two points. George and Sparrey started a drive for the Harvey line in the last period, but the game ended with the ball on the suburban 5 yard line.

GEORGETOWN NIPS
MARINES, 16 TO 0

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—(AP)—Georgetown, flashing a forward passing game, won its first victory in four years from the Quantico Marines today, 16 to 0.

SMITTY—THREE OF A KIND

Washington U. Beats Grinnell, 3 to 0, in Mud

St. Louis, Nov. 26.—(AP)—A field goal, kicked from the 30 yard line by Capt. Charley Levy of the Pikers, in the last few minutes of play, enabled Washington university to win over Grinnell, 3 to 0, in the final game of the season here today.

The game, played in a quagmire of mud and witnessed by only a few thousand spectators, was the first Missouri Valley contest the Pikers have won in two years.

A heavy downpour of rain, which fell during the entire game, kept the Thanksgiving day attendance down to 3,200, one of the smallest to witness a gridiron contest here in years. Lineup:
WASHINGTON (3). GRINNELL (0).
McCarroll Abio
Inasmile Davis
Thrasher C. Meyer
Kaslan R. T. Miller
Miller R. T. Miller
Avis E. E. McMan
Latta Q. B. Scott
Mahan L. H. Meyer
McDonald F. B. Wing
Levy (C) F. B. Wing

Field goal—Levy.
Referee—Mills (Brown). Umpire—Mills (Missouri). Head linesman—Chandler (Wisconsin).

BOGOLUBOW NEW LEADER IN CHESS
MEET AT MOSCOW

MOSCOW, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Bogolubow, the Russian master, again took the lead in the chessmasters' tournament today when he defeated Tartakower of Austria, and Torre, the Mexican, with whom he was tied yesterday for first place, lost to Romanowski of Russia. Capablanca of Cuba, the world's champion, defeated Marshall, the United States champion, and Dr. Lasker, the former champion, won from Chotiminsky, Russia, and went into second place in the score. Other results today were:

Spielmann, Austria, defeated Saemisch, Germany; Grunfeld, Austria, defeated Rad, Czechoslovakia; Yates, England, defeated Worotnikov, Russia; Bogotvitchuk, Russia, defeated Rubinstein, Poland; Rabinowitch and Genselsky and Gottlieb and Lowenbach, all of Russia, drew. Subover, Russia, had the bye today.

OREGON GIVES HUSKIES SCORE,
BUT LOSE, 15-14

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 26.—(AP)—The Oregon Webfooters gave the University of Washington huskies, Pacific coast champions, the scare of their lives today when they threatened to mar Washington's perfect season record.

The final score was Washington, 15; Oregon, 14, but in the last few minutes of the game a drive toward the Husky goal line failed by a dangerously narrow margin. On today's victory Washington holds undisputed championship of the Pacific coast conference.

Eckersall to Referee
Loyola-Haskell Tilt

Walter Eckersall has been chosen by Loyola university officials as referee of the Loyola-Haskell football game to be played on Soldiers' field Saturday. Patsy Clark, coach at the University of Kansas, will act as umpire. Nick Kansas, Big Ten official, will be head linesman.

DIXON BEATS STERLING.

Dixon, Ill., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Dixon High, champion of the Rock River School League, today defeated Sterling, 14 to 0.

Produce Sales By Measure Instead of Weight Urged

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Criticizing the present method of selling fruits and vegetables, declaring that the retailing of apples by the pound rather than by the peck, as formerly done, has had a market influence in decreasing the consumption of apples, John W. Lloyd, an authority at the University of Illinois, offered many valuable suggestions on the packing and marketing of orchard and garden products in a dispatch from Urbana yesterday.

He believes that consumption and the farmers' revenue would be increased if retailers would go back to the practice of selling apples by the peck, and he advocates the abandonment of the legal weights per bushel for such fruits and vegetables as are shipped in bushel baskets and adopt a standard bushel basket, the cubic content of which is one U. S. standard bushel. Then the so called bushel of products would be of the same volume and the products could be sold in the original containers legally on the bushel basis.

This authority says that many states have adopted definite standard weights per bushel for various fruits and vegetables, but such a double standard for a bushel of the same commodity is impossible. In many cases the standard bushel basket will not hold the legal weight of a bushel of a given product. In many states, 60 pounds of tomatoes constitutes a legal bushel, but it is impossible to pack more than 50 pounds in a standard bushel basket and get the cover on.

Becker's 100 in Row Wins Trap Shoot

While more than forty shooters were participating in the holiday gun program held at the Lincoln park traps yesterday afternoon, A. W. Becker, competing in section A of the class singles event which featured the program, furnished a thrill by breaking 100 consecutive clay to win with a perfect score.

L. C. Frey was awarded high gun honors in the B shoot, his 93 topping a field of twenty, while G. Grosner's 86 won top honors among the C participants. A. Fontana shot into first place in the D division with an 88.

SPARTA TRIMS
STARS, 7 TO 0

The team of stars from the International Soccer league proved easy for Sparta, leaders of the major league, in the game at 57th street and Kew-Forest avenue yesterday. Sparta won, 7 to 0. Kratochvill, Ike Walker, Fencil, A. Burger, Pavlicek, and Krabec were the scorers.

BECKER TIPS OFF ANGLERS TO GOOD SPOTS IN FLORIDA

BY BOB BECKER.

Salt water anglers, who take the count when the waves begin to pile up and sea sickness invades the cockpit, are invariably looking for some quiet water fishing when they land in Florida. There's one place on the west coast where a fellow can answer "the lure of the salt," catch many varieties of game fish, and at the same time fool wind and weather. Just pick up your Florida map, find Naples on the lower west coast, look at the thousands of islands south of this village, and there's your quiet water fishing hole.

We have played around and fished in the keys on the east coast and we have cruised and explored the region south of Naples. For beautiful water trips and quiet water angling it's hard to beat the latter. Hour after hour you can plug along over smooth water winding in and out of islands, over reefs and bars where game fish are assembled, and work both fishing rod and harpoon.

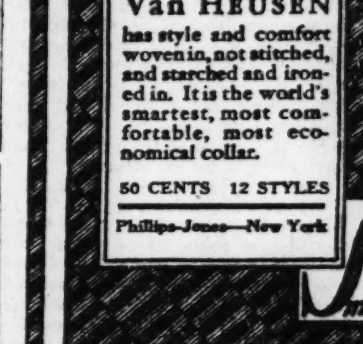

One afternoon when we were after channel bass with light tackle we came upon a reef that was literally crowded with channel bass. These beautifully tinted fish made a great picture in the quiet clear water. Standing on deck we casted for 'em much like the bass angler operates in middle western lakes.

Channel bass, mackerel, rovallo, several kinds of groupers, convict fish, and other species making up the smaller game fish group can be caught in the island country south of Naples. Sharks and rays furnish sport for the harpoon experts.

U. OF COLORADO BURIES DENVER ELEVEN, 41 TO 0

Denver, Col., Nov. 26.—(AP)—The University of Colorado overwhelmed the University of Denver eleven with a bewildering array of passes and end runs to win, 41 to 0, in the annual football classic of the two universities.

In the last two periods the Denver team crumpled before a fierce onslaught of the Colorado team, lead by Chilson and Chamberlain, and Colorado crossed the goal line almost at will.

Canadians Eye Chicago as Site for Rink.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 26.—(Special)—"Chicago will have an ice rink and ice hockey within two years," said J. L. Turner, manager of the Minneapolis ice skating arena, tonight.

Turner made an assertion rather than a prediction regarding the ice sport in Chicago. "If Chicago men or American capital doesn't bring the hockey sport to Chicago, then Canadian hockey people and Canadian capital will," he said.

"Hockey men all over Canada have their eyes on two American cities with a view to building rinks and putting in a hockey. The first city is Chicago and the second Detroit."

Turner is an old timer in the hockey game. He is a Canadian and last year he managed the Calgary, Canada, team which won the western division championship. This season he was offered and accepted the management of the local rink which was built and owned by a syndicate of wealthy local business men.

The Minneapolis rink is only two years old. Last year it paid a big profit and the owners are banking on an even better return this season.

The Minneapolis hockey team is an amateur organization with a franchise in the National Amateur association which has teams in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth, Eveleth, Winnipeg and Sault Ste. Marie. Note that the players should be judged as poor performers because they play in the amateur league. Turner explained that the league has some of the fastest performers and best players in the country in its organization.

Rink Draws Big Crowds. Already the Minneapolis rink is in operation and drawing big crowds. The rink was opened Oct. 1 and the afternoon and evening sessions of social skating bring out hundreds of ice fans.

Tickets for the hockey games—there will be twenty regularly scheduled league contests this year in the local rink—were placed on sale ten days ago and the supply is exhausted. There are 2,000 reserved box seats in the rink and all of these are sold. In fact, Manager Turner declared he could sell another 2,000 box seats if he had them.

Prices for the hockey matches are extremely low compared to some of the other cities in both the pro and amateur leagues. Top price at the Minneapolis arena is $1.25 for a single game. But, as Turner explained, the rink owners are out to build up the sport and are not anxious to make a big profit just yet.

All Minneapolis is enthusiastic over hockey. The kids all play it around in the parks and on the small ponds, and out at the arena rink this afternoon there were dozens of little fellows with hockey sticks chasing the rubber puck.

The University of Minnesota has a hockey team, which will compete this winter with teams from University of Michigan and University of Wisconsin.

CHICAGO HORSE WINS N. ORLEANS HOLIDAY STAKE

Croissant Entry Runs One-Two in Big Race.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 26.—(Special)—G. Frank Croissant made a sweep of the third running of the Thanksgiving handicap at Jefferson park this afternoon when his Sun Altos and Buck ran first and second respectively in a field of nine. The entry was second choice in the wagering.

The young jockey, Sammy Steele, had the leg up on Sun Altos and Buck, which carried 112 pounds and ran the mile in 1:28.25, establishing a new track record. The old mark of 1:29 has stood since Dec. 31, 1920. The victory was worth $2,100 to the Chicagoan. Buck adding $400 to make it an even $2,500 for the afternoon.

Big Opening Crowd. The winter season at Jefferson Park, which will continue until New Year's opened auspiciously this afternoon. Delightful weather attracted a large crowd and the resurfaced track was in the best of condition and lightning fast.

Only one favorite rewarded his followers and the opening was not of the brightest for the players of form. Jockey Tyler scored a double, winning the fourth with Bateman, the longest priced winner of the day, and bringing Boliver Bond home first in the final number. W. Sims saddled both for the Pueblo stable.

Tangara a Failure. There were only two scratches from the overnight entry for the Thanksgiving handicap, and of the nine that faced the barrier S. N. Holman's Tangara, which had won his last five starts in Kentucky, was made the favorite. The colt got away sluggishly, however, and used himself up making up ground, and the best he could do was to finish fifth. Sun Altos led for the entire route.

NEW ORLEANS ENTRIES.
FIRST RACE—Purse $700, claiming, 2 year olds and up, 5 furlongs—Ala, 107; Kirk Lady, 107; Goldfield, 107; Sun Altos, 107; Little Pal, 104; Flor Little, 101; Out Champion, 104.

SECOND RACE—Purse $700, claiming,

WHEAT HIGHER IN LIVERPOOL AND WINNIPEG

All grain markets in the United States were closed for Thanksgiving, while Winnipeg, Buenos Aires, and Liverpool were wide open, with Winnipeg and Liverpool active and higher on wheat. Liverpool closed 3 1/2¢ higher on December and 2 1/4¢ up on March and May. Buenos Aires opened 1 1/4¢ 2 1/4¢ lower and later rallied and around noon was 1/4¢ up.

A Buenos Aires cable said Tuesday's frost caused little damage. No frost was reported last night. General condition of the crop in the south is good. Many speculators are taking profits and there was some reaction today.

A later cable from Buenos Aires said: "Market steady owing to Rosario buying in Buenos Aires. Weather fine with rising temperatures."

Wheat Up at Winnipeg.
At Winnipeg the close was 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ for the day on wheat, while oats gained 1/4¢, rye 5/8¢, barley 1/4¢, and flax 3/8¢. There was no opposition to the bulls.

Exporters were good buyers of wheat. A delay was said to be active on that side. Weather in the Canadian northwest was cold with snow and snow flurries.

There were country deliveries of wheat in Canada on Wednesday of 4,025,248 bu, against 1,590,894 bu last year. Shipments from country elevators were 2,460,340 bu, against 1,830,810 bu last year.

A Melbourne cable said harvesting of wheat in Australia had commenced and that there was no material change in the crop. Exportable surplus estimated at 56,000,000 bu. This is about as recently.

Vancouver has 4,000,000 bu wheat in store and enroute with ocean tonnage chartered to load 2,500,000 bu wheat by Dec. 15. Freight rates are advancing.

The cash demand for wheat at Winnipeg was good with offering light as the bulk of the arrivals are being used to take care of sales made a month to six weeks ago for the last ten days in November. Arrivals of wheat at Winnipeg were 1,321 cars against 1,446 cars a week ago and 1,280 cars last year; oats 87 cars against 112 cars last year; barley 158 cars; rye 19 cars, and flax 45 cars.

Winnipeg Market Up.
Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Speculative buying which created the bull market of a year ago and sent wheat up to $2.35 per bushel, was rife in the Winnipeg market today and was largely responsible for the heavy gains recorded.

The early bulge was based on the Buenos Aires market which advanced 7 cents on Wednesday as the result of predicted frosts in the central provinces where the crop is best. Public buying on an extensive scale later took hold of the market and November wheat was boosted to $1.55 at the high point. Closing prices wheat: November, 50¢ higher at $1.54 1/2; December, 50¢ higher at $1.49 1/2; May, 50¢ higher at $1.53 1/2; and July, 50¢ higher at $1.51 1/2. Oats: November at 47¢; December at 46¢; Barley—November at 64¢. Flax—November at $2.55. Rye—November at 33 1/2¢.

FISK RUBBER CO. OFFERS PLAN TO PAY ARREARAGES

New York, Nov. 26.—(A.P.)—Directors of the Fisk Rubber company today submitted to stockholders a plan for the payment of accumulated preferred stock dividends and recommendations to provide additional working capital. Stockholders will vote on the proposal on Dec. 11 and at the same time will be asked to authorize the issuance of $10,000,000 in short term notes.

The accumulated dividends on the first preferred stock now amount to $25 a share and on the second preferred stock to about $21 a share. In settlement of the dividends on the first preferred stock it is proposed to offer stockholders $1 in cash and $25 in first preferred convertible stock which will be entitled to 7 per cent dividends ranking equally with the present first preferred stock and will be convertible into four shares of common stock at any time up to Dec. 31, 1925.

When all the dividends on the first preferred stock are paid, it is proposed to offer to second preferred stockholders in payment of their accumulated dividends, common stock to be taken at a valuation of not less than $25 a share.

$3,000,000 City of Duisburg (Germany)

7% Serial Gold Bonds Due Annually November 1, 1926 to 1945

Prices to Yield from 7 to About 7.65%

Principal and interest payable in United States Gold Coin without deduction for German taxes of any nature.

The following information is taken from official sources:

Duisburg, situated at the junction of the Rhine and Ruhr rivers, is the gateway to the Ruhr valley, one of the most concentrated industrial areas in the world. The city has a population estimated at 274,000 and has a larger traffic than any other inland port of Europe. City owned properties are conservatively estimated at worth $30,000,000, over 50% of which represents the value of revenue producing properties. The total municipal debt, including this issue, is less than $7,000,000.

Among the city's important revenue producing properties are the electric light and power system and gas and waterworks systems, which supply practically the entire community and, to some extent, adjacent sections. On the basis of earnings so far for the year 1925, it is expected that these systems alone will show net profits of $600,000 for the year, after allowance for interest on the investment and depreciation. The proceeds of this issue are to be used primarily for the extension and betterment of public services and for harbor facilities.

Every year except one since 1910 the city has had a surplus of revenues over ordinary expenditures.

This is the only external funded debt contracted since the stabilization of the currency. The city's other funded debt now totals less than $4,000,000, including debt issued previous to the stabilization of the mark, as to which the liability of the city is officially estimated at approximately $2,000,000 under the terms of the Revaluation Act of July 16, 1925.

We recommend these bonds for investment and shall be pleased to send circulars describing the issue in detail.

"Your Personal Bank"

This is Number Four of a series of advertisements bearing the general title, "Before the Age of Electricity"

It is but a short time since "whoa" and "giddap" were the only "Stop" and "Go" signals of city traffic. Yet already the horse and buggy age seems so far away as almost to be forgotten. The clatter of horses' hoofs would still be the principal sound along our streets and boulevards if the Age of Electricity had not produced cheap and efficient power for the quantity production of motor cars.

You'll find much of interest in our booklet, "The Ideal Investment," which tells why Electric Power and Light Bonds are so much in favor among careful investors. Ask for Booklet T-51, please.

Electric Power and Light Companies have so many different sources of revenue that no one of them can be called the most important. All of them, however, are tied up with the progress of modern civilization—a fact which makes their bonds the ideal investment for conservative investors.

RAIL VALUATION BRINGS EXPOSURE OF $135,000,000

[Chicago Tribune Press
Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—]—Valuation of the United States will amount to $135,000,000.

This estimate is based on the valuation next three years under a proposed to Congress by the commerce commission. Congress has agreed to commission approximately for the next three years mission's promise that enable it to complete the as of fixed valuation that has been done fixed will be brought up.

U. S. Spends $27,490,000 spent by the government of the rail properties been under way since 1919. The railroads' total valuation work is rough. It is estimated that the commission had a valuation of the government railroads in the next three months the commission approximately $30 million.

Pressure is being exerted by the commission to wind up work in the next three months, at its last session approval of the three years the commission had a valuation work. In the months the commission approximately $30 million.

Officials of the commission when the new force familiar with the work to be that many more tentative valuation reports will be than has been possible up. Approximately 125,000 road, or 51 per cent of the age of the country, have in tentative reports.

Approximately 9,300 miles have been finally valued. Why Valuation Is Needed. Passage of the rate of the transportation act gives for receipture of the of railroads by the government congress to the new valuation work. soon as possible, it has been conceded that the revision would not be effective until final valuation railroad properties had been.

AIR TRADE BOARD PARTISAN ROW IN ALUMINUM CASE

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—(Sp. cl.)—Another partisan row within the federal trade commission was aired today in the dissent of Commissioners John F. Nugent and Huston Thompson, the two Democratic members, from a majority ruling denying the department of justice access to records of the commission's investigation into the affairs of the Aluminum Company of America.

In its ruling of Jan. 18, 1925, the commission announced that thereafter records voluntarily submitted by corporations under investigation would not be available to the department of justice. The department sought to determine whether the Aluminum Company of America could be prosecuted for violation of the anti-trust laws.

Mellon Heavy Stockholder.
Secretary of the Treasury Mellon is a heavy stockholder in the company, which was attacked by the Democrats during the 1924 presidential campaign as the "aluminum trust." Through its two subsidiaries, the Aluminum Goods Manufacturing Company and the United States Aluminum Company, the Aluminum Company of America controls the production of more than 60 per cent of the country's total output of aluminum utensils, it has been charged.

The effect of the majority ruling, in some cases at least, according to Nugent and Thompson, may be "to aid the criminal to evade trial and escape punishment."

Claim Rule Has Been Broken.
Prior to Jan. 18, 1925, it is pointed out by the dissenters, it had been the commission's policy to allow the department of justice free access to its files, excepting, of course, those containing trade secrets and names of customers, and the new rule has been broken at least once since its adoption in an important case, they assert.

DISCLOSE MORE WAR SECRETS IN SUIT OVER TANKS

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, Nov. 26.—More war secrets were disclosed today at the hearing of the suit of Capt. J. P. Bentley against the government for $200,000 ($150,000) for the invention of the tank. Capt. Bentley claimed he was sent for by Lord Kitchener and was asked to design an armored car which would cross trenches. He said he designed it and afterwards it was put in service under the name of a tank.

Government witnesses, disputing his claim yesterday, said that the tank was not invented at all, but was the result of the ideas of several persons which were started long before through a romance of H. G. Wells. Sir Maurice Hankey, secretary of the committee on imperial defense, said today that early in the war Lord Kitchener was very lukewarm when the subject of mechanical warfare was mentioned to him, and Sir William Tritton, who actually built "Big Willie," father of all the tanks, told how at the first trial Lord Kitchener said it was a pretty mechanical toy, sending him away disappointed.

ANTI-FOREIGN LAND BILL DOOM SEEN IN MEXICO

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Mexico City, Nov. 26.—The Mexican senate is aroused because foreign reporters have asserted that United States Ambassador Sheffield has been exerting his influence to keep the senate from passing the anti-foreign land bill. The president of the senate today said that the senate would consider and vote on the bill regardless of national or international pressure and that Mr. Sheffield never had and never would have any influence in the senate. The senate, he said, would not bow to the dictates of a foreign nation. From what appears to be an inspired source, the city press said today that the senate had routine business which would occupy the remaining few days of its session, and that it would not be able to consider the anti-foreign land bill. Therefore, it is believed the bill will meet its death in the senate.

BELGIANS CRY AGAINST "RULE OF FOREIGN GOLD"

(Copyright, 1925: By the New York Times.)

BRUSSELS, Nov. 26.—Under the headlines, "We Are Governed by Foreign Bankers," the Belgian Right Press today violently criticizes those concerned in the Belgian loan negotiations with the United States for promising a reduction of 150,000,000 francs in the budget.

Foreign Minister Jaspard, at yesterday's discussion of the budget in committee, pressed Foreign Minister Vandervelde for an explanation of the report that American banks had demanded a reduction of expenditures by that amount. If it were so, M. Jaspard said, the conclusion was that Belgium was ruled by American and English financiers.

M. Vandervelde replied that the facts were substantially correct, although the figure was not. The government, he said, had to choose between obtaining the loan or abandoning the idea of stabilizing Belgian currency.

RUSSIA SWINGS HARRIMAN GRANT TO THE GERMANS

(Copyright, 1925: By the New York Times.)

PETERSBURG, Nov. 26.—The Harriman interests have become involved in difficulties with the Soviets over the manganese concessions in the Caucasus, according to word received here. It is said that the Harrimans have carried out their part of the bargain, including a recent payment of $4,000,000. They now find that the Soviets have made a contract with German interests giving a concession to the same fields. This German company operated the mines before the Soviet régime, and it is understood the former Kaiser is a heavy stockholder. The report says that the Harriman interests have protested to Moscow without satisfactory results.

PREDICTS RAPID DEVELOPMENT OF RAIL MOTOR CAR

(Copyright, 1925: By the New York Times.)

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Remarkable development of the oil electric car in the immediate future was predicted by its inventor, A. E. L. Chorton, of the William Boardman company of England in a short address at a luncheon under the auspices of the Institute of the Engineering Institute of Canada. C. E. Brooks, chief of motive power of the Canadian National railways, discussed tests made with the cars now in use. He said there was an important field for the new car. Mr. Brooks pointed out that in the last few years, bus and truck transportation had brought up a new problem. Not only were transportation companies finding thinly populated branch lines affected, but unexpected conditions had developed in their main lines, he said. The oil electric engine has shown itself capable of meeting many of these conditions he asserted. The new car costs about 2 cents a mile for operation.

REDUCE ARMS TO GET PEACE, U. S. ENVOY ADVISES

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

BERLIN, Nov. 26.—Ambassador Jacob Gould Schurman tonight added one more word of advice to the many the United States has given the European nations since the armistice when he said the removal of provocations for war through disarmament or a restriction on armaments is the surest road to permanent peace. Speaking before 500 members of the American colony of Berlin at a Thanksgiving dinner, Mr. Schurman praised the new spirit which animates Europe today and expressed the hope that it would lead to a regulation of armaments. "This is our Thanksgiving day," he said. "If I am asked what we should be most thankful for, I would be disposed to answer the growing sentiment in favor of the promotion of peace and prevention of war among nations. "If the nations are to forget past sufferings and avoid future conflicts, the incitements and provocations for war must be removed. As Kant more than a century ago recognized, the greatest danger is in the building up of competitive national armaments. The spirit of peace cannot take possession of the world as long as the world bristles with armaments. The attitude of America on this question was clearly revealed in the Washington disarmament conference in 1921."

A Statement of Policy by Lawrence Stern and Company

Banking Principles Applied to Real Estate Mortgage Bonds

REAL estate mortgage bonds constitute today one of the great major divisions of securities, ranking second in volume among the various classes of corporation financing. The application of sound banking policies in this field is, therefore, of the greatest importance. Lawrence Stern and Company—a general investment securities house—backed by large capital and managed by men of long experience in real estate and corporation financing, has a specialized organization to underwrite and distribute real estate bonds, and will apply in this field the same tested and proved general banking policies that have been applied to other classes of securities. Among these policies are:

MARGIN OF SAFETY. It is the policy of this house to offer issues representing a conservative percentage of the value of the mortgaged property. We believe the safety of a first mortgage bond issue should not be entirely dependent upon the risks of operation and management, and that there should be substantial junior financing representing actual capital investment back of the first mortgage.

APPRAISALS. It is the policy of this house to obtain and publish outside independent appraisals, made by appraisers of recognized standing, in every bond issue we underwrite—in addition to the appraisals made by our own organization.

TRUSTEESHIP. It is the policy of this house to employ a trust company of recognized standing in every issue we underwrite, in order properly to conserve the various funds in connection with the bond issue and generally to supervise and enforce the execution of the terms of the trust deed.

ENGINEERING SERVICE. It is the policy of this house to maintain an organization equipped to render the most thorough and expert engineering service in co-operation with property owners, architects and contractors. We believe that the factors of proper planning and layout, and attention to engineering details in building loans are of the highest importance in creating safety. It is also our policy to maintain constant and vigilant inspection and supervision of the mortgaged property throughout the life of the bond issue.

We believe that the employment of these policies by a house which has the resources and experienced personnel to carry them out, constitutes a development of real importance in the banking progress of the nation.

Banks, investment houses, individual investors and others particularly interested are invited to send for a brochure now being printed—"Banking Principles Applied to First Mortgage Real Estate Bonds."

Special Offerings in

Type 61 Open Cars

For a limited time—

Complete winter sides

on Type 61 Phaetons

and Touring Cars.

For a short time only, as a special offering, we will install a complete set of winter sides on all Type 61 touring cars and phaetons in our showroom at the regular price of $1,300.

The extra equipment makes these Type 61s even more attractive investments than before. With cold weather equipment here, winter side equipment is very desirable.

This special plan you can close your car comfort at the price of an open automobile.

The Type 61 Cadillac enjoyed great popularity as a car. It was widely known for its ability, its smoothness and quiet, and

the ease with which it is handled. These qualities are retained in the used

Type 61s we are offering today.

This unusual opportunity

open to you for a limited time. We advise you to come today and select your Type

61 touring car or phaeton.

This may mean that the car which would suit you will be sold.

This opportunity on any of these

FOUR KINGS FUNERAL MA FOR ALEXAN

London's Page Set in Snow

Tragic Sequel

LONDON, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Three Londoners died suddenly following memorial service for Mayor George Alexander.

The lady mayoress, wife of Sir Pryke, who was installed mayor of London on Nov. 9, had disease shortly after from an evening memorial at St. Paul's cathedral.

During the afternoon Canon Gurnea, custodian of Westminster who had been busy all day with memorial services and in supervising the arrangements for the funeral by the coffin, returned home and went to bed. His wife, while beside him heard his murmured words it has been too much immediately afterward the cause

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Yesterday, the woman, bade farewell to her friends and neighbors at the Tower of London.
Today, the body of Alphonse, the queen and empress, played a part in a great state ceremony which emphasized the power and the empire over which her husband and her son now rule.
Tonight her body lies in the Abbey, while long lines of people pass before the catafalque in the coffin. Tomorrow it will be laid at rest at Windsor, the place of many relatively peaceful years of the body of King Edward.
Nowhere in the world are state ceremonies as perfectly planned as in England, and this was no exception. The king himself gave the mourning for the queen a day's rest, and early this morning the first snowfall from the beginning of the year and three days of rain, gave it the appearance of a silver drizzle.

One of Royalty's Spectacles
I had a view of it that if it co-produced on the stage would the producer's reputation and fo-my place in the abbey was in the front near the north door. We were waiting for hours for the procession when the first strains of a military band were just at that moment the north wing open and remained open several minutes.

Trained in the arch of the dome was a wonderful procession of a thousand in tall bearakin hats, marching through the thickly falling snow with rifles and arms reversed. The bear hat was covered with snow and the instruments were caked with snow. Troops in ordinary flat caps and also snow covered musketeers, and airmen, all on foot with snow, were marching in the procession.

They carried on Gun Carriage then came a gun carriage with covered with the queen's bearing the leopards of Rothe arms of Denmark. On city a floral crown.
They were ten giant green small quadrupeds who carried behind the gun carriage.

George marching, then marched he with a
and dragged with a
and another on the shougray army covered immediately behind. Not of Wales, also alone. He marched and gray guard behind him were the three of Norway, and Dan-
the duke of York. After this and enormous of known as minor royalties and relative family.

The procession had taken a quarter of an hour from the start of an hour from the start in St. James palace to the very step of the way and by the royalists on foot. The procession was drawing the gun carriage was the coffin. The procession reached the royal Indian arrived in the and had taken their place in the carriage. They were deep in the procession on page 1, continue
